

Receives 3000 Volts of Electricity and Is Alive

To Fight for California Racing

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—Struck by a live wire which sent 3000 volts of electricity circulating through his body, Martin Rooney, a lineman, residing at 1079 Tennessie street, was hurled from his perch on a cross tree at the top of a telegraph pole and fell head-foremost to the ground. The accident, which occurred in the Potrero district, was witnessed by a number of persons who ran to Rooney's side, thinking to find him dead. He was picked up and hastily removed to the Potrero Emergency Hospital, where it was found that he was probably fatally injured. He received a broken right leg, a fractured right collar bone, numerous lacerations of the scalp, and bad burns on both hands, besides internal injuries caused by the electric shock.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—J. P. Atkin, a partner of Barney Schreiber in the latter's racing stable, who returned from Europe today, said that he would take up racing in France should anti-betting legislation be successful in California. Mr. Atkin added that the racing men of California were preparing to make a hard fight against anti-betting measures, the introduction of which had been promised.

PERKINS WILL BE AN EASY WINNER

San Joaquin and San Diego Swing Into Line for the Senior Senator---Leaguers Will Be Scarce at the State Convention---No Contests at the Local Convention Tomorrow---Democrats to Put a County Ticket in the Field.

San Diego county has swung into line for Senator George C. Perkins. The convention held in the city of San Diego last Tuesday passed a resolution strongly endorsing "the conscientious service to the nation and their constituents of our California senators, the Hon. George C. Perkins and Hon. Frank P. Flint." The platform adopted at this convention, while not a long one, is to the point.

The Taft Republicans in this county controlled the convention and as a result Senator Perkins will have the support of the legislative candidates from this county.

Marin and Contra Costa counties will be in line for Senator Perkins and the legislative candidates from those counties are pledged to him and he will be strongly endorsed.

The people of Contra Costa county are very much interested in the senior senator, for they have watched his career in the Senate and are well pleased with the work accomplished by him.

PERKINS GAINS EVERY DAY

Every day county and district conventions are being held throughout the State and the legislative candidates are being instructed to support the senior senator for re-election. It will thus be seen that Senator Perkins will be re-elected unanimously. There is really not another candidate in the field and it is now almost too late for any one to break in.

SPRECKELS AND HENRY

Rudolph Spreckels would like to get the Republican support for United States Senator, but he sees no way at the present time to get a single vote in the State Legislature. On the other hand, Francis J. Henry has his eye on the senatorial toga from the Democratic point of view. It is stated he has friends now looking around among the Democrats on his behalf with a view to capturing the Democratic vote. It is conceded, however, that this is to be a Taft year in California, with the result that the Republicans will be in force. This being the case there is little chance of Mr. Henry going to the United States Senate.

KNIGHT'S STATEMENT

George A. Knight has made a statement concerning the candidacy of Senator Perkins. This is what he has to say:

"All the talk of defeating Senator George C. Perkins as United States Senator is rot. Just as sure as George Perkins is alive when the legislature meets, just so sure will he be re-elected. There hasn't been a question about that. For a time it looked as if the health of Senator Perkins might not be good enough to stand the strain of the fight but he is as well and hearty as he ever was now and there is no one in sight who could beat him out of the election. This talk of Metcalf for Senator is moonshine. Perkins will be elected just as certainly as he is on hand to receive the honor."

SAN JOAQUIN FOR PERKINS

The San Joaquin County Republican County Convention had the following to say in the platform concerning the senior senator:

"We recommend our United States Senators, Hon. George C. Perkins and Hon. Frank Flint, and we especially commend Hon. George C. Perkins for his able and statesmanlike conduct of his great office, whose long and varied experience in the affairs of the government have given him an influence and a standing in the Los Angeles Democratic Convention Marked by Scenes That Almost Reach Fisticuffs.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21.—After a day and night session closed with the most turbulent fight in the history of the Democratic convention, the Los Angeles delegation to the national convention in St. Louis to-morrow adjourned. It was decided that the little between the convention delegations would be reduced to a walk-off with even greater vigor than yesterday.

MAY HAVE ENDED LIFE

Friends of Jules Hartman Fear He Has Followed His Son to a Suicide's Grave.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 21.—Jules Hartman, Sr., whose son, Jules Hartman, Jr., committed suicide by shooting himself in the head, was buried yesterday, and his friends say he has done away with himself. The Hartmans, father and son, were bairnmen, and lived in an attic room at the Alameda boat club house at the north end of Chestnut street. It was in the room where the young man ended his life.

The old man took the death of his son very much to heart, and in the theory he became despondent through shooting over the loss of his son, and he has done away with himself. A search of the area made this afternoon by Carl Weaver of the deputy coroner's office and Mr. Stewart of San Francisco, a friend of Hartman, failed to reveal anything that might lead to the discovery of the whereabouts of the missing man.

A note addressed to Stewart, written by Hartman, contained the simple statement that the writer was going away for a few days.

WORLD'S WONDERS ALONG SANTA FE

Fine Opportunity From Sept. 28 - Oct. 30 to See Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

Santa Fe Agent Ryden has received an interesting letter from John J. Byrne, assistant passenger traffic manager of the Santa Fe, in which the latter says that people need not go to Europe or other foreign countries to see the earth's wonders. Some of these can be seen along the Santa Fe line, as is set forth in a statement of John A. McDowell, a multi-millionaire of Philadelphia. McDowell and his party traveled over the Santa Fe and went into the Grand Canyon of the Colorado in Arizona.

SCENERY IS GRANDE

The world's wonders cannot be beaten in the world, Byrne says, and calls attention to the fact that in traveling on the Santa Fe, passengers have the Fred Harvey meals on the way and after you get there. Elstov Hotel is on the brink of the canyon and is under the management of Fred Harvey.

Another interesting statement sent out by Byrne is as follows:

GOOD TIME TO SEE CANYON.

"The California bankers are going to Denver and back with the American Bankers' Association, which meets in that city September 28 to October 3, 1908. They are going via the Santa Fe, a train load of them, and will stop a day or so at the grand canyon. This is a good time to visit the canyon. Fred Harvey will serve the meals, surcharge EXPENSES WAY DOWN."

"This will be a business trip and vacation trip too. The expense will be down—$65 round trip from California points. These tickets will be good on the luxurious California Limited, the only train via any line from Southern California to the East should be made early."

SACRAMENTO NOMINEES

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 21.—The Republican County Convention today made the following nominations: State Senator, C. B. Bills of Sacramento; Assemblyman, Seventeenth district, Grove L. Johnson; Assemblyman, Eighteenth district, E. L. Hawk; Assemblyman, Nineteenth district, W. W. Greer; superior judges, C. N. Post, L. T. Hatfield, S. R. Hart; supervisors, Howard Johnson, C. E. McKillip, James W. Donnelly.

Among the planks of the platform adopted by the convention is one declaring for direct primaries.

SHAVES WHILE STORE IS RUINED

But Dropped Razor to See Stranger Hurl Glasses of Candy to Ruin.

(Special to The Tribune)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—When A. Harris, who keeps the candy stand at the Land's End station of the United Railroads, near the ocean beach, opened his place of business this morning and then went upstairs to his room to finish his toilet, he little thought what a scene of destruction would greet his eyes when he returned. In the meantime Andrew Bresco of 154 Mission street, had descended by and entered the waiting room.

His first act was to take the expensive show case and hurl it across the room, shattering candy everywhere and smashing it into bits. He then made baseballs of the glass jars, smashed the counters and broke chairs.

Hearing the commotion, Harry dropped the razor with which he was shaving himself, and picking up a chair succeeded in pacifying Bresco and at length had him tied hand and foot.

He then stood guard over his man until Pollicene Highflower arrived and Bresco was taken to the Central Emergency hospital, where his wounds were dressed, after which he was held for observation.

Congress of the United States and in the counsels of the nation which can be attained only from long service, industrious conduct and a comprehensive knowledge of every question of State; and we hereby endorse his candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate."

PORTER'S POSITION

The Examiner this morning states that Lieutenant-Governor Warren is in the background in the Senatorial fight. The fact is that Porter is a friend of Senator Perkins and will be for him all the time for re-election.

Mr. Porter stated yesterday that Santa Cruz county would send a man by the name of Lucas to the assembly. He will be for Senator Perkins. Lieutenant-Governor Porter added that Francis J. Heney did not dare attack him in his speech at Watsonville beyond saying that he was a part of the machine. "If he had gone any further he would have been very promptly asked about that $30,000 fee."

LEAGUERS ARE FEW

The Republican state convention will be held in Oakland on August 27, and will consist of a large number of delegates from every district in the State. There will be an interesting showing made at this convention for the reason the records will show that there will be present just one-half the league delegates that were present at the state convention in May. This will show the falling away of Lincoln-Rooseveltism in California. The Taft Republicans will have complete control of the state convention and everything possible will be done to promote the interests of Taft and Sherman in California.

COUNTY CONVENTION

The Republican county convention will be called to order tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Hamilton Hall. The following ticket will be nominated: Superior judges—Henry A. Melvin, William H. Waste, T. W. Harris; senators—E. K. Strobridge, John W. Stetson; assemblymen, Forty-sixth district, Thomas H. Silver; Forty-seventh, Frank Otis; Forty-eighth, James T. Feeley; Forty-ninth, John W. Mott; Fiftieth, Harry W. Fulcer; Fifty-first, George J. Hans; Fifty-second, C. C. Young; supervisors—First district—C. F. Horner; Fourth district, F. W. Foss or H. D. Rowe; Fifth district, John F. Mullins.

STATE HEADQUARTERS

The Republican state headquarters during the state convention will be at the Hotel Metropole.

The Republican league clubs of California will not meet this year.

DEMOCRATS TO MEET

The Democratic county convention will be called to order tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Germania Hall. Clyde Abbott of Berkeley will be elected chairman. There are three candidates suggested for the nominations for superior judges—Walter Galagher, Brewton Hayne and Carl Abbott. S. J. Sill of Berkeley will probably be nominated for supervisor in the Fourth district. T. J. McIntyre and J. Hammitt are candidates for supervisor in the Fifth supervisory district.

Thomas J. Power of Irvington is a candidate for senator from the Thirteenth district. The following will probably be nominated assemblymen: Forty-eighth district, Thomas Sexton; Fiftieth district, James P. Montgomery; Fifty-first, J. J. O'Toole.

FOUR BOY BURGLARS CAUGHT

Policeman Runs Down Quartet of Youthful Thieves and Lands Them in the County Jail.

Four young boys, ranging between the ages of thirteen and sixteen years, were detected at an early hour this morning by Deputy Constable Becker in the act of burglarizing a fruit and candy store belonging to H. Miller on Twenty-third avenue, East Oakland. The officer, after a brisk chase through the lonely streets, succeeded in apprehending all of the youthful criminals and this morning took them to the county jail, where they were booked upon a charge of petty larceny. The names given by the prisoners are—Joe Dias, Fred Green, Harold Ray and Am William McTollough—are not unknown to the authorities in that section of the city, and they will probably be severely reprimanded when they are called before Judge Melvin next Monday morning.

When captured the boys had in their hands full of the proceeds of their theft, consisting principally of candies, fruit and small gew-gaws, which were on sale in the store.

Prothonotary Officer Rhess will be asked to investigate their records before final judgment is passed by the criminal magistrate.

PRETTY GIRL IS ALLEGED THIEF

Young Woman Has Friend Arrested Unknowningly—Must Now Stand Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—When pretty Winona, a Virginian, appeared in Justice Conklin's police court this morning with equally pretty Helen Dibble, the star girl of clubland and were apparently friendly, yet Miss Dibble had sworn in a warrant charging Miss de Vigne with grand larceny and Miss de Vigne had spent the night in the cold cell prison, while Miss Dibble was comfortably ensconced in her room in the Glenwood apartments, 415 Turk street.

Both girls are telephone operators and until last evening resided at the same place. Last Friday morning Miss Dibble reported to the police that she had lost and stolen several pieces of jewelry from her room and practically all of her money little dreaming that she was assisting her friend.

FRIEND ARRESTED.

Detectives Ryan and Beardon arrested cage birds when they learned that Miss de Vigne left the Glenwood apartments Wednesday they traced her to her new abode and searched her room there, then they found the lost property.

Detectives Ryan and Beardon arrested the girl last night she spent in jail. Miss Dibble objected to swearing to a warrant for the arrest of her friend, but the law was insistent and the arrest was made. This morning Miss de Vigne was arraigned and instructed by Judge Conklin and her bail was fixed at $100 cash or a bond of $300.

DEFENDS DAUGHTER

Instead of catching her, she wanted him to go home with her on the day in question and telephoned him to meet her. He had other plans, however, and she was proceeding home with some friends and merely stopped at the resort for a moment for some refreshment. She found her husband there with two notorious women.

SAYS HUSBAND BEAT HER.

"Later, when she came home, he beat her unmercifully and threw her out of the house. He is one of that kind who believes implicitly everything he tells and says frequently 'May God strike me dead if I do not tell the truth.'

At this point the nurse restrained Mrs. Decker but after a moment she pointed to some marks on the wall where plaster had been torn away.

"You see those marks? That is the mark made by a brush which Mr. MacNevin hurled in his anger in this very room."

Further conference was forbidden as Dr. Clinton, the family physician, was expected to call at any minute.

LAWYER CONSULTED.

Down at his offices on the fourth floor of the Grant building J. H. Decker spent the morning consulting with Attorney Costello, his legal counsel and sent out some persons to investigate the reports concerning MacNevin. He would say little regarding the case at this time, contenting himself with the assertion that it would all come out eventually. He, however, characterized the story as a "lie from beginning to end."

"Mr. MacNevin is insanely jealous," he declared. "There's nothing to the story at all. I understand my stepdaughter was merely on her way home when she chanced to encounter her husband at the resort."

TEXAS GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE AGAINST PROHIBITION AND SAYS THAT HE WILL WIN

HOUSTON, Texas, Aug. 21.—Texas has a new candidate for Governor in the person of Seabury Richardson, who has served as a reporter on many southern newspapers. Mr. Richardson has issued formal announcement of his candidacy in the following unique plan:

"With the help of God, I intend to be Governor," says he. "I enter the race seemingly handicapped, cut off from the great political parties that have ruled the lands; but I shall win as God is with me and I stand for what is right."

Mr. Richardson opposes prohibition.

STRIKERS MOB THE HINDUS

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 21.—Two hundred striking Italian track laborers this afternoon undertook to drive thirty strike-breaking Hindus away from their work in the Northern Pacific Station yards, and when the police who had been on guard all day interfered, a number of shots were fired.

Officers drew their weapons and a pitched battle ensued. None of the officers were hit but it is believed that some of the Indians who are now hiding among the cars in the yards were injured. Chief of Police Duely has just sent a patrol wagon loaded with men armed with sawed-off shotguns to the scene. The Indians are striking for higher wages.

FRESHMEN REFUSE TO OBEY DICTATES OF SOPHOMORES

BERKELEY, Aug. 21.—The freshman, awaiting with feverish interest the meeting next Monday, when the juniors will organize the freshman in Harmon Hall, agreed to obey the sophomore regulations close in the past, less severe, adapted with more or less success to break it up and the efforts of the freshmen to form and organize Monday will probably be a success. On account of the debt, an increased ratio of the two classes will probably be more than usual and unless the faculty interfere the differences between the two classes will be settled by a free-for-all "fray."

The description of the debt by the freshmen is without a parallel in the history of the university. It has long been the custom of the sophomores to post annually rules that still regulate the conduct of the entire student body, and the regulations have always been accepted with more or less grace.

UpHEAVAL OF WRATH.

The freshman probation has caused an upheaval of wrath in the camp of the upper classmen and a clash between the Sophomores and the冥冥newcomers is imminent. The college community is

PRESIDENT TRYING TO RECEIVES GREETING

Australia's Welcome Forwarded to Roosevelt, Who Responds, Sending Thanks for Kindly Message.

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 21.—Upon the arrival of the American fleet at Sydney, N. S. W., the British chargé d'affaires, the following telegram from the governor-general and government of the commonwealth of Australia:

"Australia, thousands of whom are gathered on the shores of Sydney to welcome the battle-ship fleet of the United States, at this moment entering the eastern gateway of this continent, unite in cordial greetings to President Roosevelt. The people of the commonwealth gratefully appreciate the generous response to their invitation to the president and citizens of the great Republic and rejoice in the opportunity afforded by this demonstration of the might of America's navy to express their sincere admiration of your sailors and their esteem and affection for the country whose glorious flag they hope to see always floating beside that of their motherland."

PRESIDENT RESPONDS.

When Secretary Foster returned from a night visit to the President, at an early hour this morning the President sent this telegram in response:

"Oyster Bay, N. Y., August 21, 1908.—The British chargé d'affaires through you I have just received the cordial and kindly message from the government of Australia I desire to express in my turn to the governor-general and government and through them to the entire people of the mighty commonwealth of Australia the appreciation which the American people feel for their generous hospitality to the American fleet. The people of this Republic hold in peculiar esteem and admiration the people of Australia and it was very natural for me to speak on behalf of the nation to accept the generous hospitality proffered by Australia to the fleet on its voyage of peace; for the American navy is a menace to no power, but is, on the other hand, we believe, an asset of importance in securing peace and justice throughout the world."

(Signed)
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
BRILLIANTLY LIGHTED.

SYDNEY, Aug. 21.—Following the official landing the American visitors today and their public reception by the state and commonwealth authorities, the city and surrounding shipping were brilliantly illuminated last evening. The governor of New South Wales, Sir Harry Rawson, gave an official dinner in honor of the American officials and the commonwealth government entertained the officers, sailors and marines of the fleet at theatrical parties and other places of amusement.

The illuminations were most striking. All the public buildings were outlined with numberless lights; there were countless devices and decorations conveying sentiments of welcome and fraternity displayed on every high, private building, vying with the immeasurable edifices in the brilliancy of their decorations, while the fastidious throng could streamers covered with lights, large and small, while the gas lights threw vivid streams of brilliant light in every direction, and even to the clouds overhead. The grand spectacle was viewed by vast crowds that filled the streets of Sydney until late hour.

The state banquet given by Admiral Sir Henry Rawson in the town hall was a brilliant function. There were upwards of 1000 guests, and the balconies were crowded with women, cheering, dressed in a mixture of Australian and British flags intertwined. A large bust of President Roosevelt occupied a position on an elevated pedestal behind the seat of Rear Admiral Spratt.

Chas. G. Wade, the premier of New South Wales, presided. Alfred Deakin, the Prime Minister of the Commonwealth, made a striking address of welcome.

"Australia," he said, "is one in body and soul in advancing our American visitors. The ships which had been at anchor in the harbor, scarcely can be described as vessels of peace, but they might rightfully be called harbingers of arbitration. I trust that President Roosevelt will be informed in words of the famous American, Captain Joshua Taffelton, that 'Blood is and always will be thicker than water.'"

BONDS DRAWN CLOSER.

When Admiral Spratt arose and related his former statement of Great Britain's navy being the example of American naval officers, he was overwhelmingly welcomed. He said he knew no better education for American naval officers than a systematic study of Great Britain's training and war. "Draw more than sentinel," he said, underlining the magnificent volcano that had been accorded them in Sydney. Ties of blood, community of interest and intermarriage united the American and British peoples and these bonds would be drawn closer with the completion of the Panama Canal.

SECRETARY WILL BE ENTERTAINED

Baptists To Hold Banquet and Reception for Official on Eve of Departure.

The Baptists of the bay cities are anticipating an occasion of interest and pleasure in the reception and banquet to be given Dr. Thomas S. Coats, secretary of the American Baptist Missionary Union on Monday evening, August 24, at the First Baptist Church of Oakland.

Dr. Barbour is to sail for Japan and China in the fall following the reception to make an extensive inspection tour of the field work of the society. His address will be full of the latest missionary information from the world-wide field.

Tickets to the reception and banquet should be secured from the members of the committee in each church before Sunday evening, as provision will be made only for the number of tickets issued.

Dr. Barbour will preach in the First Baptist Church of San Francisco Sunday morning and in the Evangelical Baptist of Berkeley in the evening. He will be the guest of Rev. A. S. Coats D. D., pastor of the Evangelical Church, Berkeley, during his short stay on the coast.

DISCOVER RIOTERS

Springfield Authorities Have a Hard Time Getting Evidence; Militia Has Been Withdrawn From City.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 21.—Military rule ceased in Springfield today, the militia force having reduced to a minimum, Brigadier General Francis P. Wells, commanding the 12th Brigade, was relieved of his command this morning and left for his home in Decatur. General Wells has been in command of the troops in the eastern part of the city. This leaves Major General Edward A. Young, the only general officer remaining and he will probably remain as long as the troops remain.

The grand jury resumed its investigation this morning. It is understood that further charges against Abraham Baynor, who was made the subject of six indictments yesterday, were being considered.

Baynor now stands formally accused of murder, malicious mischief and riot. The indictments, except the one charging murder, are all for felonies, and the alleged acts include the burning of the Loper restaurant Friday last. The murder charge alleges that he took part in the lynching of William Dominguez on the preceding night.

SAYS HE IS RINGLEADER.

The authorities claim to have evidence that he was also a ringleader in the raid upon the Black Bull, which followed the Loper riot and resulted in the burning of about thirty-five structures, the demolition of a score of business houses and the lynching of Scott Hanes.

Kate Howard, who was indicted for malicious mischief and riot, was arrested on a bench warrant last night. Her ball has been fixed at $10,000 by Judge Creighton of the Circuit Court, who issued the warrant. The charges against her relate to the looting of the Loper restaurant.

Loper was a witness before the coroner's jury last night at the inquest into the death of Louis Johnson, who was found dead in the basement of the restaurant. It developed that no autopsy had been held on the body by Coroners Woodruff and none of the physicians who witnessed the remains would venture a positive opinion as to the cause of death. The possibility that the boy was killed by falling into the basement and breaking his neck may cause an exhumation of the corpse.

PAID FOR DRINK AT KNIFE'S POINT

But Unwilling Guest Has Intoxicated Friend Arrested and Charged With Assault.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—As the result of a dispute over the payment for drinks in a saloon on McAllister street late last night, Calvin Williams, a laborer, is locked up at the city prison, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, and Donald McRae of 831 Webster street, is suffering from severe cuts on the face.

The men were arguing for some time in the saloon and little attention was paid to them until Williams was seen to draw a knife and make several stabs at McRae. The police were called in and Officer J. J. Casey arrested the assailant and took Williams to the Central Emergency hospital for treatment.

"Australia," he said, "is one in body and soul in advancing our American visitors. The ships which had been at anchor in the harbor, scarcely can be described as vessels of peace, but they might rightfully be called harbingers of arbitration. I trust that President Roosevelt will be informed in words of the famous American, Captain Joshua Taffelton, that 'Blood is and always will be thicker than water.'"

BONDS DRAWN CLOSER.

When Admiral Spratt arose and related his former statement of Great Britain's navy being the example of American naval officers, he was overwhelmingly welcomed. He said he knew no better education for American naval officers than a systematic study of Great Britain's training and war.

"Draw more than sentinel," he said, underlining the magnificent volcano that had been accorded them in Sydney. Ties of blood, community of interest and intermarriage united the American and British peoples and these bonds would be drawn closer with the completion of the Panama Canal.

BRYAN WILL START THE CAMPAIGN

Democratic Candidate to Address Audiences in Des Moines—Gets Big Reception When He Reaches City.

DES MOINES, Aug. 21.—William J. Bryan reached Des Moines at 9:30 a.m., two hours behind schedule time. Although he had worked far into the night at Lincoln, preparing for his speech, he slept well en route and stepped from the train at the Rock Island station fresh and happy. He was met by a crowd of 1000 persons.

State Chairman Piero took him immediately to the Savery hotel where a crowd of Democrats were in waiting and Bryan was forced to hold an impromptu reception in the lobby.

Bryan's program here permits of little rest for him. He will be called upon to meet hundreds of his partisans at the Savery hotel this afternoon at a reception. Guests have come from all over the State to meet the candidate and fully 5000 persons from out of town are expected to attend the big meetings to be held this evening

TO OPEN CAMPAIGN.

This afternoon there will be a council of the Iowa Democratic leaders which Bryan will attend. They will then plan the campaign in this State. This evening Bryan enters actually into the campaign, with his speech on the tariff which sets forth his views on that great issue and which will be his answer to those who have criticized his actions. A meeting will be held at the baseball park. Fifteen thousand persons can be accommodated. An overflow meeting will be held in the auditorium.

NEW LAWS FOR AUTO DRIVERS

Chicago to Restrict Running of Cars by Women and Children and Avoid Accidents.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—First Assistant Corporation Counsel Emmett C. Wetten announced yesterday that, alarmed by the increasing number of automobile accidents the next legislature will be asked to enact a law compelling classification of the various kinds of machines, the licensing of all drivers, and possibly barring from the city streets those cars whose high power makes special speed far in excess of the city's regulations.

"A casual examination of the reported motor car accidents seems to show that many of them occur when the machines are driven by young persons or by women," he explained. "At present there is no way of preventing this and no way of making sure that any one has the capability and experience necessary to handle a large machine."

"A law will be asked which will allow a man to drive his machine if he knows enough about it, but which will prevent his children from taking turns at imperiling the lives of pedestrians. Every season makes such a law more necessary because every season brings into the market more cars with more complicated mechanism."

GOVERNMENT WANTS MILLIONS ARE AT STAKE

Effort Being Made to Save Elkins' Act and Interstate Commerce Law

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—The Government's petition for a rehearing by the United States Court of Appeals in the case against the Standard Oil Company of Indiana was filed today, and represents the Government's side of the case in the court, according to the defense. The Government's attempt to save the Elkins act and the Interstate Commerce Law from becoming futile.

The filing of the petition marks the appearance of Attorney General Bonaparte in the case as well as that of Frank B. Kellogg, who is a special assistant to the Attorney General. Besides these two names the petition is signed by Edwin W. Sims, U. S. District Attorney at Chicago and Special Assistant James H. Wilkerson, both of whom presented the Government's side of the case in the court, according to the defense.

MUST DEFEND RULING.

Although it is not specifically stated in the petition, it was agreed by counsel for the government, in their conference at Lenox, Mass., following the reversal by the appellate court of Judge Landis' decision, that if the interpretation of the law given by Judges Grosscup, Seaman and Hall were allowed to stand, successful prosecution of related cases against corporations would be impossible in the future. The lawyers at the conference, over which the attorney general presided, were a unit in expressing the opinion that their reform in rebate matters brought about by the Roosevelt administration would represent so much loss of time unless the higher court can be convinced that it is in error in the construction of the law.

GOPHS AND FRESHIES CLASH

CLAUDIANES BROTHERS ARE KEPT APART IN COUNTY JAIL

John Draws Upon Gold He Brought With Him From San Francisco

John and Peter Claudianes, who were indicted by the grand jury of Alameda county for alleged participation in the dynamiting of the house in which Big Jim Gallagher lived last April, slept securely and peacefully behind the walls of the county jail last night. This morning they ate a hasty breakfast, consisting of oatmeal, bacon, bread and coffee, after which each enjoyed the solace afforded by the inevitable cigarette. About ten o'clock this morning John Claudianes sent the following note to Chief Justice White:

"Peter White—Please let me have $100 and oblige." —JOHN CLAUDIANES.

JOHN HAS MONEY

Investigation of the envelope in which the effects of the younger Greek were placed disclosed that he had brought along $40 gold pieces with him to Oakland. Later in the other hand arrived the bill which was then given to him. It is not known what John did with his money when he left the jail, but White sent word to him that it would be sent to him when one of his gold pieces could be found.

ARE KEPT APART

These men will receive exactly the same treatment as do the other prisoners while they remain in the county jail. They will be separated from all persons, a necessary precaution in view of their plan of working mutual influences upon them. They received letters to write to one another, but they will not be allowed to do so until they are no more imminent to me than any other prisoner placed in my charge.

NOW UNDER BARNET

Immediately after the return of a letter from Hunt, it was learned that the Claudian brothers and parties unknown, who had made off with $3,500 two months ago, had been apprehended. They were formally placed under arrest in the office of Justice of the Peace T. W. Jones, and the Jameson, Brown, and Clegg law offices. The hands of Sheriff Frank Lott and H. P. Hart, present, made a formal

MONSTER BENEFIT WILL BE THAT OF JUD BRUSIE

Already $2000 Worth of Seats Have Been Sold to Friends

(Special to The Tribune)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—The late Judson Judson, the old-time capitalist social favorite, a prince of good fellowships, died at a broken heart in Los Angeles Friday morning. His funeral services were held in this city Saturday by his many friends in this community. A monster benefit, both a tribute to his memory and an aid to his widow, will be given at the Van Ness Theatre in the afternoon of August 29, and will only testify to the esteem in which he was held by his associates.

$2000 ALREADY

Already $2,000 has been received from 100 seats and it is estimated that at least $3,000 will be cleared from the sale. The arrangements are in charge of a committee composed of Bush Finch, chairman; Walter Kinnear, Charles A. D. Pitt, William Inniss, Charles Ward and Seth Dunn.

All together the affair is assured of success and the performance will be a society event for the smart set on both sides of the bay.

Mr. and Mrs. James Oles and their daughter, Miss Edith Oles, have returned from Mill Valley where they have been spending the summer and are again settled in their home on Valencia Street. The young friends of the Miss Oles are looking forward with the greatest anticipation to the day when she will give her first evening at the Redwood Hall.

After a week's sojourn in the west, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Grotz, and Captain C. E. Grotz, returned Wednesday in their private car. Miss Oles with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Scott, Miss Walter S. Martin, Miss Linda Holmes and Duane Hopkins. Mr. Martin, who was one of the congressional candidates in 1892, was obliged to return Monday. Miss Jennie Crook and Miss Jessie Taylor, who since her arrival from New York has been dividing her time between the Fairmont and the Hotel Huntington, came to San Francisco with her from Paris a small collection of caricature drawings, intending to have an exhibition in New York only in December.

ROOM THIEF ADMITS GUILT

Ex-Convict, Who Was Arrested in Pawnshop, Confesses to Robbing Rooms of Three Women.

Ernest Ross, alias Johnson, an ex-convict who was recently arrested in a pawnshop on 14th and 2nd by Det. Asst. M. S. Sibley, and held within the last 24 hours, has confessed his guilt and will plead guilty when his trial begins at 10 o'clock this morning and held to answer. He entered to do so. He will plead guilty to the charge that he committed a robbery in the San Fran. office of the Superior Court. He was born in 1881, and is 25 years old. He is a son of John J. Johnson, a San Franciscan, and wife of Mrs. Mary Johnson, who is well known in Los Angeles and thus it is.

Both of the divorce story and the immediate reason for the suit was the fact that the wife at Uncle Tom's Cabin on the old Mission road early Wednesday morning a week ago left her husband. With her were two male companions prominent in San Francisco and the wife a business man of this city. All these names he is promised will come out during the trial of the suit.

MISSES HIS WIFE

A week from last Tuesday Mr. MacNevin so he declares missed his wife from home but came to this city to work making efforts during the day to find her at the home of her mother Mrs. J. H. Dockweller at Clayton street.

His efforts were in vain. Late Tuesday night he started for his home at San Mateo in an auto. In the early hours of Wednesday morning he stopped at the Fourteen Mile House for breakfast and there he alleges was accosted by his wife with the wife of a business man well known to him and two male companions.

When MacNevin confronted his wife with the story as he had obtained it from the chauffeur who drove the maid for the merry quartet she is said to have broken down and related the whole story from its beginning at Blameo to the end at Uncle Tom's Cabin.

ORDERS HIS WIFE OUT

After the alleged confession MacNevin ordered his wife to leave the home and she came to the residence of her mother in this city. MacNevin the next day called upon his lawyer Charles W. Stack and began preparations for divorce. He will demand the custody of the two-year-old daughter Ruth.

At the home of Mrs. Dockweller it is stated last night that Mrs. MacNevin was ill and could not be seen.

CONFESSED HIS GUILT

When Ross was taken into custody in the pawnshop in the morning of Saturday he was found in his room at 14th and 2nd. He was then identified as the man who had plucked the wad he stole from Miss Thompson. It is also stated that Arthur R. Smith, a dental surgeon under the circumstances was useless, he first fully confessed his guilt saying that the soon he was sent to the sound he would return to claim his freedom.

WELCOME TO BE A ROYAL ONE

U. S. Athletes Will Receive Congratulations and Medals Upon Their Arrival in New York.

NEW YORK Aug 21 — Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt has accepted the chairmanship of the general committee of the Olympic reception committee and has contributed $500 to the fund. Vanderbilt's letter which is dated New York, R. I., indicates that he will take an active part in the reception.

Contributions are coming in daily and it is expected that there will be enough money subscribed to cover all the expenses including the medals. The total amount received and promised up to last night was $1000.

ARE ON WAY HOME

With the possible exception of Martin J. Sheridan every athlete who competed in the Olympic games will be on hand for the celebration on August 29. Five more athletes arrived from Liverpool today on the White Star steamer Baltic. They are Robert Cloughan, George V. Bonhag, Joseph Bromilow, Jr., Leo Falbert and J. R. Reilly.

The cablegram announcing the sailing of the men yesterday also stated that Lawson Robertson, Dan J. Kelly, Charles R. Bacon, Harry F. Porter, Melvin W. Sheppard, Joseph P. Sullivan, Harvey W. Chin and T. B. Taylor will sail tomorrow on the Mauretania which will arrive about the same time as the Baltic.

JAPS PLAN A BIG WELCOME TO FLEET

Will Send Six Ocean Steamers to Greet Big Battleships

SEATTLE Aug 21 — It is proposed by a committee of Japanese arranging for a reception to the American battleship fleet with their arrival in Japanese waters. To send a fleet of six ocean steamships to meet the warships 100 miles off shore upon their course into the chief Japanese ports.

A. S. Mihara, an official of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, the largest Japanese sea steamship porters of the Orient arrived from Japan today and stated that an application for all the vessels his company could spare had been filed by the committee. It is also stated that the arrival of the fleet at Yokohama is anxiously awaited and plans are made to make the stay in Japanese waters the most notable feature of the world cruise.

SOCIETY WOMAN WILL BE SUED FOR DIVORCE AFTER WILD NIGHT IN ROADHOUSE

Prominent San Franciscans Will Be Drawn Into Scandal That Will Follow Revelations to Be Made by Husband.

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 21 — A suit for divorce growing out of an alleged wild night escapade in a roadside resort in the suburbs of this city and involving the names of many prominent San Franciscans will be filed either today or tomorrow in the local courts by William V. MacNevin of the firm of Linder & MacNevin & Jones, real estate dealers against his wife, Miss Gertrude Piper MacNevin, and by Miss Gertrude Aiken who is well known in Los Angeles and thus it is.

Both of the divorce stories and the immediate reason for the suit was the fact that the wife at Uncle Tom's Cabin on the old Mission road early Wednesday morning a week ago left her husband. With her were two male companions prominent in San Francisco and the wife a business man of this city. All these names he is promised will come out during the trial of the suit.

WILL SUE AT ONCE.

Divorce proceedings will be instituted against my wife either tomorrow or the day after, said MacNevin last night. After my discovery of a week ago there is no other course open to me.

Sensational development may be expected when the case comes to trial as there are many facts to be developed that will involve other people. For the present I will say that I have ordered my wife from my home and she is now living with her step-parents in this city. I have taken our child and given her into the care of my mother.

I want to say that it was merely by chance that I found my wife in the company of other men at Uncle Tom's Cabin.

It was just a week ago last Friday that my wife was missing from home. I looked for her in this city but could not find her. In the early hours of Wednesday morning I was on my way to San Mateo from this city in an automobile. I stopped at the Fourteen Mile House for breakfast and while there met a man who told that two of my old friends were aboard the British steamer at San Francisco. He invited me aboard to see them. I went with him and about midnight the vessel put out to sea.

I was in my uniform at the time. I wore Captain Anderson's uniform and pilot's cap. I was in the cabin in the United States Navy. I said I would remain at the first port until I got to work. I fished. When we reached Singapore I went to bed.

WANTS HIS SHIP

What I was doing I went to the captain and she got out of my sight so I could say nothing to her. I deny that I created a scene at the resort. I did not strike him or step over him as he has been reported.

BOY'S NOVEL PLAN TO CATCH FISH COSTS HIM HIS SIGHT

NEXT NEW YORK Aug 21 — William Tense, 13 years of age of Passaic, N. J., is in danger of losing his sight as a result of an experiment in fishing. The lad conceived the idea of blowing fish out of the water with fire and set about to do it. A tiny glass tube was half filled with alcohol and a cork put on top. The tube was then heated over a flame and the cork blown off. The boy then inserted the tube into the eye and lit the alcohol. He did not consider that the flame and water would be so quickly an explosive. According to little water. In the time the boy struck the bottle, but when he removed his hand the cork stuck fast in the face and the glass exploded and burned his face and eyes so badly that he may never see again.

SHANGHAIED SAILORS ARRIVE

Echo of Old Waterfront Scandal in San Francisco Revived by an Appeal of Seaman.

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 21 — John Clark of 11th Street, San Francisco, who traveled by steamer to China, and was captured by pirates, was released yesterday afternoon. Clark was captured in San Francisco Aug. 10, 1904, in getting into the Chinese. Clark was released in San Francisco Aug. 21, 1905, in getting into the Chinese. The directoire masquerade ball given last night under the auspices of a committee of Oakland Court No. 6 Tribe of Ben Hur in Woodmen's Hall proved a great success. Two hundred members and their friends in costume participated in the affair. The entertainment from the Sun Club is a court pageant. The pageant was attended by Mrs. Jessie Anderson, the first-gowned woman Arthur Wynandon, most gallantly dressed gentleman, "Crown" of Court No. 12, the most original, Mrs. Louise Philbrick and Miss Elizabeth Hill. They were given prizes for the best comic character.

The affair was managed by R. P. Foster, Arthur Gordon, A. D. Club Henry Bayliss, Kenneth Lewis.

CLARK'S STORY

I sold a boat yesterday, said Clark, and then I traveled to the West Virginia. My number was 17. On May 12, I was given 45 days' short leave. On my first night ashore I met some friends and didn't know who all of them were, but two of my old friends were aboard the British steamer at San Francisco. He invited me aboard to see them. I went with him and about midnight the vessel put out to sea.

I was in my uniform at the time. I wore Captain Anderson's uniform and pilot's cap. I was in the cabin in the United States Navy. I said I would remain at the first port until I got to work. I fished. When we reached Singapore I went to bed.

MINER CRUSHED IN THIRTY FOOT FALL

SAN ANGELO Aug 21 — Wild Bill, Wild Bill Hill, former champion bronco buster of the world, and one of the strongest catchers in the United States, was mortally injured yesterday at Santa Fe, N. M., while working at the first post in 11,111 feet of altitude. He fell from a horse and struck forty horses from a team of 100,000 pounds. He traveled with Wild Bill, the show. He won his world's championship in the rough riding in Cincinnati. Wild Bill died yesterday because he had been crushed by a horse he was walking along the water front.

Because of the warning received from the police, he avoided the post.

Max Thelan as Politician and Taxpayer.

The resolution passed by the Fifty-second (Berkeley) Assembly district convention to "work against the election of Senator Perkins and in favor of some man who stands for the principles of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League" was introduced by Max Thelan, an attorney for the Western Pacific Railroad. As Mr. Thelan has thrust himself into the limelight as an opponent of Senator Perkins in his home county, it is pertinent to inquire into his antecedents and affiliations. As he is one of the small fry in the shoal of political attorneys the Western Pacific has employed in this State, it is only natural that he should be opposed to Senator Perkins and righteously indignant at the political activity of corporation hirings.

But while Mr. Thelan's name appears on the payroll of the Western Pacific Railroad and has been frequently printed of late in connection with Lincoln-Roosevelt League meetings, it does not appear on the assessment roll of Alameda county. It may stand for reform but it does not stand for taxpayer. It figures large on the roll of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League of Berkeley, but is unmentionable on the books of the Tax Collector. The Assessor does not know Mr. Thelan as a person who aids in paying the running expenses of Alameda county, however active he may be in running politics. However, it is possible that he refrains from paying taxes for fear the money will be spent in wasteful extravagance. As a foe to waste and extravagance, Mr. Thelan probably prefers to keep all the money he receives as a Western Pacific attorney himself rather than let it go into the county treasury to be expended by officials in whom Mr. Thelan has no confidence.

Mr. Thelan has his law offices in San Francisco. He snores and does politics in Berkeley, but his professional center is San Francisco. It is true that he does not cut a large figure at the bar of San Francisco, but he may pay taxes in that city. It is to be presumed that he possesses law books and office furniture, and it is possible that the San Francisco Assessor has been able to discover them. But the Assessor of this county has never been able to find anything belonging to Mr. Thelan save his political activity. That is not a taxable quantity, however valuable it may be to the Western Pacific Railroad. But his services to that corporation can hardly be charged as a debit item in Senator Perkins' account.

Again the Reckless Chauffeur.

A San Jose correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle calls attention to the fact that the automobile which ran down and killed Isaac Upham was on the wrong side of the street. The driver of the car cut across in front of a street car without being able to see whether or not any one was coming from the opposite direction. The inference is that if the auto had been on the side of the thoroughfare prescribed by law and custom the accident which cost the aged merchant his life would not have occurred.

Commenting on the statement of its correspondent, the Chronicle says it is a common practice for autos to take the wrong side of the street in San Francisco. It certainly is in Oakland. And here chauffeurs constantly run through the crowds gathered at the chief transfer corners when they could easily avoid doing so by making a detour of one or two blocks. At Twelfth and Broadway this disregard of public safety and convenience is to be witnessed a hundred times a day. Nearly every chauffeur coming into Broadway from the south makes it a point to run up Twelfth to the Broadway intersection, no matter what part of Broadway may be his destination, with the consequence that the machine has to be pushed through the crowd at the Oakland Bank of Savings corner, where the College avenue, Sixteenth street and San Pablo cars turn into Twelfth.

Some excuse is furnished for this dangerous practice by the dilapidated condition of Franklin street, which is another argument for the speedy repaving of that thoroughfare. However, chauffeurs should sacrifice some of their own convenience in preference to putting in peril a mass of pedestrians largely composed of women and children. Furthermore, chauffeurs should get rid of the notion that they are a preferred class and have superior rights in the streets and highways. The great majority of them appear to be ignorant of the fact that pedestrians have the right of way on crosswalks. But whether chauffeurs do or do not choose to obey the law and show a proper regard for the lives and feelings of others, the police authorities have a duty to perform in the premises. They are the guardians of public safety, and upon them rests the responsibility of compelling obedience to the law. While this duty should be performed with tact and without intent to inflict unnecessary hardship, it is one which should not be shirked or ignored. A proper display of firmness in this matter will effect a wholesome regulation and avert the danger of shocking tragedies and mutilations.

In the excess of his enthusiasm for the cause of political purity a Lincoln-Roosevelt League candidate for the Assembly in Los Angeles voted twice. He declares he did this in a fit of absent-mindedness, although he did not forget to vote for himself on both occasions. Far be it from our desire to discredit the gentleman's explanation, still it is doubtful if he would readily accept such an excuse if offered by his opponent. Had an organization man been detected in the act of repeating, the Lincoln-Roosevelt organs throughout the State would have foamed at the mouth in denunciation. They would have sworn that it was evidence of a wholesale scheme of ballot box stuffing, also hailed it as proof that Senator Perkins is a tool of the corporations, and that every man prominently connected with the regular Republican organization is an abandoned rascal. But when the repeating is done by a Lincoln-Roosevelt Leaguer striving to purify politics it is only a lapse of memory. It is sad to think that forgetfulness of this kind often draws suspicion on a truly good man.

The Chronicle says Bryan's advocacy of an income tax is demagogic because it requires an amendment to the Federal Constitution. The objection is not conclusive. A proposal to amend the constitution is not demagogic. That instrument has been amended several times, and no one claims that it is any the worse for the changes. However, both President Roosevelt and Judge Taft have gone on record as favoring an income tax. In his letter of acceptance Judge Taft gave it as his opinion that an income tax law could be drafted that would be free from the objections raised by the Supreme Court in the case of the Wilson income tax law. Bryan contends that no income tax can be levied till the constitution is amended. But while Taft agrees as to the wisdom and justice of tax-

Captain Who Saved 28 Sailors Presented With Handsome Emblem.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—In recognition of his having saved the lives of twenty-eight sailors in a gale on the Grand Banks last April, Captain James Harrison, of the Volturno of the New York and Continental Line will today be presented with a gold, diamond-studded medal on his ship, lying at her Jersey City pier. The presentation will be made by an officer of the Life Saving Benevolent Association of New York. Sailors who manned the life boats at the time of the rescue will also receive souvenirs of the heroic service.

THREE DAYS TO RESCUE.

The men saved formed the crew of the Champagne, a French schooner of 36 tons, en route from Rotterdam to New York, sighted in the Channel when she neared land, hoisted anchor and began leaking. So high ran the seas that it required three days to transfer the men from the sinking schooner.

Twenty years ago Captain Harrison saved thirty-two men from the Nautique, a French steamer which foundered in mid-Atlantic. Captain Harrison brought to this country Lord Dunraven's racing yacht, the Valkyrie III.

Elaborate Reception to Introduce Guests From Texas

Miss Louise Hall Announces Date for Her Wedding

Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. William Merritt Hall for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice Louise to Harry T. Hays. The date is for Wednesday, September 10, and the ceremony will be solemnized at the Plymouth Congregational Church.

After the ceremony at the church there will be a reception at the Hall home on Vernal avenue, Piedmont.

A large number of invitations have been issued for the church.

Since the announcement of her engagement, Miss Hall has been the complimented guest upon several occasions. She is a very great favorite among her set of girl friends.

Mr. Hays is a member of one of the oldest families in this section of the State.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

About forty members of the congregation of the Centennial Methodist Church, called at the home of the pastor, the Rev. G. M. Richmond last evening.

The occasion was the anniversary of the seventeenth year of the marriage of Rev. and Mrs. Richmond.

The guests made the affair a surprise and brought with them several very pretty remembrances.

During the evening music and games were enjoyed, Mrs. Edith Edwards and Rossa Sankey contributing songs and the pastor giving several interesting recitations.

Among those present were Mrs. W. M. Crilly, Mrs. Aiken, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Angwin, Mr. and Mrs. McMurry, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. G. B. Smith, Mrs. E. Willis, Mrs. L. B. Emmons, Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Tatton, Mr. and Mrs. Duffy, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. A. D. Wilson, Mrs. A. E. Putnam, Mrs. Knutzen, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. L. Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Dunsmuir, Mrs. Edith Edwards, Mrs. Hattie Lowry, Mrs. Dixon, the Misses Flossie Adams, Edith Bryan, Ruth Cowan, Eva Snyder, Eileen Murphy, Ida Verhas, Iva Nilson, Ethel Inglesby, Rossa Sankey, Ish Doty, Al Williams, Miss Ruth Griffin, Orion Utterback, Walter Cowan, W. S. Angwin, Ed Allen, B. A. Terrill, Raymond Richmond, Miss Muriel Richmond and Miss Ruby Smith.

PLAN ELABORATE RECEPTION.

Mrs. George Gross and Mrs. J. Lorcan Pease who are taking such a great pleasure in the visit of their sister, Mrs. W. H. Richardson and her young sister-in-law, Miss Julia Richardson, will entertain on Thursday, September 3. The affair is to be an elaborate reception and will be given at the Gago family home on Harrison street, when the many friends of the Gago sisters will have an opportunity to meet Mrs. Richardson after her absence of four years and to make the acquaintance of Miss Julia Richardson.

This will be the opening social event of the season among the young matrons and will be followed by a succession of affairs in which the visitors will be the complimented guests.

RECEPTION AND MUSICALE.

This evening, Charles Dutton will entertain at his picturesque Berkeley studio in honor of Miss Christine Rose who has recently returned from a two years' sojourn abroad during which time she has studied with the best piano masters in Paris and Berlin. Since her return, Miss Rose has been the complimented guest at several charming affairs. Besides the altar of pride of the Forest Circle, C. O. F. of A. O. F. The score cards will cost twenty-five cents, including refreshments. Splendid prizes will be given, sixteen in number, and including hand painted chinaware and silverware.

In a separate room cream and candy will be sold and a good time enjoyed by friends and families of those playing whist. Come to Hall No. 1, Foresters' building, Clay street, corner of Thirteenth.

SURPRISE PARTY.

The friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Ketchum of Diamond gave the young couple a happy surprise on Monday evening, when they called to bid them farewell before their departure for their ranch, near Santa Cruz.

Quite an elaborate program was given during the evening after which a feast of good things to eat was enjoyed.

Among those who assisted in the entertainment of the evening were Mrs. Burgmeister, Mrs. Golden, Mr. and Mrs. William Bowditch and Mr. Bryant.

DANCE FOR VISITORS.

Miss Eileen Van Pelt entertained this week in honor of Miss Evelyn Loder of Salt Lake City and Miss Edna Terseheren of San Francisco.

The beautiful home on Peralta heights was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the refreshments were served on the upper veranda which was enclosed and decorated with bamboo ferns and lanterns. The table decorations were of pink.

About thirty guests enjoyed the pleasures of the evening which included dancing and games.

ENTERTAINS MUSICIAN.

Mrs. William Duff Sherman, who was Miss D. Persis Goodman, well-known in musical circles about the bay, is the guest this week of Miss Alyce Gates of Haste street, Berkeley.

Mrs. Sherman is on her way to her new home in San Jose, where Mr. Sherman has been sent by the State Department of Architecture to superintend the re-construction of Agnews State Hospital.

BRIDGE PARTY.

Mrs. Frank Melbourne of Linda Vista has issued cards for a bridge party for next Wednesday afternoon. The guest of honor upon this occasion will be Mrs. Frederick Eaton Wilson of Boise, Idaho, who is visiting friends on this coast.

Mrs. Wilson has considerable musical talent and has made a large circle of friends during her visit. Mrs. Melbourne is a very charming hostess and entertains frequently. She has included a score or more friends in her guest list for Wednesday.

HOME WEDDING.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized on Tuesday evening when Miss Laura H. Clayton and George H. Martin were married at the home of the bride's parents on Thirty-sixth street.

The Rev. William Cook was the officiating clergyman. About fifty guests were present upon this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin will make their home at 920 Union street.

FROM PARAISO SPRINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Davis and their little son, Richard Edward, have returned to their home on Walsworth avenue after a pleasant sojourn at Paraizo Springs.

Mrs. Harry E. Elfin and Miss Genevieve Elfin have also enjoyed a pleasant outing at the springs and are now at their Telegraph avenue home.

DINNER AND WHIST.

Mrs. R. T. Cunningham of 2010 Newbury street was a recent hostess, entertaining a few congenial friends at dinner, after which a social game of whist was enjoyed.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Flint, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lawrence, Mrs. Carrie Darling and Miss Eva Darling.

HOME FROM EASTEN TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Whitehead returned last Sunday from an extended Eastern trip of five weeks. During their trip they visited New York, Chi-

FAMOUS DEBATE IS CELEBRATED

Daughters of Revolution Observe Forensic Contest Between Lincoln and Douglas.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—The semi-centennial celebration of the great debate between Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas was celebrated at Ottawa, Illinois, today, on the spot where the "Great Emancipator" and the "Little Giant" stood during their argument of fifty years ago. In commemoration of the event a unique monument marking the spot in Washington Park was unveiled by Illini Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution. A twenty-four ton boulder has been brought from the farm of Mount Tremont and placed on a concrete base in the park. On the face of the boulder a bronze tablet bears the following inscription:

"This boulder marks the site of the first Lincoln and Douglas debate, held August 21, 1858. Erected by the Illini Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Ottawa, Illinois, August 21, 1908."

The semi-centennial celebration was directed by the La Salle County Historical Association, which has been planning for the event for over a year. The unveiling ceremonies were arranged under the auspices of the Daughters of the Revolution who gathered the funds for the installation of the monument.

THE TALK OF THE TOWN.

Thousands of people patronize us weekly—go away pleased, and recommend us to their friends. We started in a little store on the second door of the Albion Building, Fifteenth street and Broadway, where we are holding our regular business. In addition to the piano, we have a large collection of organs, grand pianos, square pianos, etc. Remember Drummer's Samples are always the dealers' best efforts. We couldn't be steadily successful on shams, and we are not. Our prices are what you could afford. Our great sales which increase daily prove that our shanes are dependable and our values real.

We are also successful in just received a big shipment of sample lines, comprising a varied assortment of high-grade novelties and interest effects in ladies' and gent's shoes. FIVE DOLLARS GETS A PIANO

Payment of Cartage and Convenient Monthly Installments Places a High Grade Piano in Your Home

Nothing we have done in a long time has so well met the popular demand as our plan of placing fine pianos in many Oakland homes on payment of $5 down.

We realize that at this time of the year when thousands of families are settling down for the winter, the expenses in other directions make it almost impossible to provide a piano for the home.

Our $5 payment plan has solved this question for hundreds of families in good circumstances, but who at this time find themselves short of ready money.

There will be but one week more of the popular Eilers new method of Piano Selling. The TERMS are right—the PRICES are right and the treatment is right. The best proof of this is that the people who bought last week are sending their friends to take advantage of this unusual opportunity.

Remember, we handle such well known makes as the Schnerer, Hazelton, Decker & Son, Kimball, Lester, Hobart M. Cable—all in forty different makes. Every piano is thoroughly guaranteed.

This offer is not permanent. It will be for a few days more only.

GIRL WHO ELOPED MAKES THREAT OF SUICIDE

ASKS GUARDIAN FOR WOMAN WORTH $40,000,000

Fresno Miss Declares She Will Kill Herself If Denied Her Sweetheart.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—Tearfully declaring that death would be preferable to separation from her sweetheart, Nellie, the 18-year-old daughter of O. P. Summers, a wealthy rancher of Fresno county, confronted her father in the office of acting Captain of Detectives Thomas Ryan yesterday afternoon. A short time before the girl and her lover, Leo Warren, a young medical student of Cleveland, O., were apprehended on a Mission street car at Fifth street and taken to the City Prison, pending an investigation.

The couple first met at Long Beach, in the southern part of the State, a few weeks ago, and it was a case of love at first sight. When Miss Summers, with her parents, returned to Fresno Warren followed, and a strenuous investigation and trial were the only objection to the match, but the couple refused to be denied and eloped last Friday evening.

The elopement was done in confidence, and when Warren ran away the parents of the girl were in bed, and before their flight was discovered they had arrived by San Francisco.

The police were notified, but it was not until yesterday that they were located in this city and taken into custody by Policemen Tyrrel and Morris.

The father, who has been in the city for several days looking for his daughter, was notified and went to police headquarters, where he was told his daughter was not affecting a meeting, but when the father announced that he had come to take her home the girl declared that she would kill herself if her parents forbade her choice. This the stern parent forbade and persuasion proving fruitless, the girl was taken to the station and given into the care of the matron.

TOBACCO THIEVES HAVE BUSY NIGHT

Enter Two Stores But Are Frightened Away From One—Other Theft Reported.

Tobacco thieves broke into two stores last night stealing a small amount of money and material valued at $10. They effected an entrance into the store of Mrs. Antonio Luz, 1786 Seventh street, by prying open a rear window and stole some silver and a quantity of Durand tobacco. They also effected an entrance into the store of C. A. Rothamel, Telegraph Avenue. A quantity of tobacco was piled up ready to be carried away when Rothamel, hearing footsteps in his place of business, proceeded to make an investigation, which frightened the thieves from the place without any loot.

HOME IS ROBBED. Burglars also forced an entrance into the home of Ronald McMillan, 676 Eighth street, last night by prying open the rear door with a jimmy, and stole $16 in gold and silver. Nothing else of value in the house was disturbed.

CHINESE IS ROBBED. Gin Chin Sheo, a Chinese merchant of 318 Sixth street, reports that thieves broke into his residence last night through a rear window and stole a quantity of Chinese silk wearing apparel from a trunk in the bedroom. A description of the stolen property has been given to the police.

OTHER THEFTS REPORTED.

O. E. Moors of 646 Fifty-fifth street, reports the theft of an electric switchboard valued at $100 from the basement of his home, while Robert Levy of 574 Twenty-fifth street reported the theft of a suit case which contained a baseball outfit of the Alameda team.

The Daily Addition of Latest Modes

To Fall's showing of Tailored Suits and Costumes is one of the leading features of interest in the store.

When our display for the new season is complete—and it is fast becoming so—it will represent the ripest judgment of these experienced buyers, who journeyed direct from our store to New York, charged with the sole mission of securing the very best that fashion offers.

Fully appreciating the strenuous competition to be met, and committed to maintaining our reputation as leaders, these buyers have secured an assemblage of garments that for exclusiveness, style, variety and quality cannot be surpassed.

We would suggest that now is the time to choose your Fall Suit. Styles are established, a representative display awaits you and we have already crossed the threshold of the new season.

$25.00, $32.50, $37.50, $50.00 and to $225.00

Early Fall Hats

Somewhat in advance of the regular opening of the Fall Millinery season, our milliners have made up a choice display of walking hats at the $5.00.

This clever headwear shows the new shapes and is smartly trimmed to accord with Fall's newest ideas.

On the millinery floor you will find a satisfying variety of new plumes in the new shadings, wings, aigrettes, breasts, feathers, ribbons and ornaments, from which it will be an easy task to plan the exact kind of hat you have pictured as most becoming to you.

Our First Showing of Guaranteed S. H. & M. Silk Waists

Everybody has heard of the lasting qualities of the guaranteed "S. H. & M." Petticoats. We now invite you for the first time to see the elegant tailored Taffeta and Messaline Waists made by the S. H. & M. people and carrying the same well-known three months' guarantee against splitting or cracking.

The styles of these waists are perfect, strictly tailored in every detail in accordance with fall's correct ideas.

Colors are black, blue, navy and white.

SEEKS DOG TO NURSE LIONS

Unnatural Lioness Refuses to Suckle Four Cubs and Keeper Wants Great Dane for Foster Mother.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Dr. Dey, animal keeper at Lincoln Park Zoo, was searching yesterday for a Great Dane dog to act as mother to four lion cubs. They were crying piteously for something to eat. They had been born the day before and their mother refused to stay with them.

Dr. Dey tried to induce them to drink milk from a glass bottle, but had no success and in the case of a baby lion, but the whelps sniffed it disdainfully and whined worse than ever.

"There's only one thing that will save them," said the animal keeper, "and that is a Great Dane dog to act as foster mother."

The mother lion snarled viciously at every one who came near her cage. She would not look at her whelps. If Dr. Dey had not taken them away at the hour of their birth the unnatural lioness would have killed them.

BABY LION BORN IN ZOO.
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Bismarck, King of the Central Park menagerie and his mate, Rose, are the proud parents of a baby lion born yesterday. The cub's arrival was the signal for the sire to shake the lion house with his roar and the sextet of lions and lionesses, brothers and sisters of the new cub, joined by the cubs. Keepers took the precaution necessary to give Rose and her litter privacy, so when the cubs confronted the lioness demanded and as they struggled in front of the cage the cub, which has been named Kink, was purring in perfect contentment.

WILL DISCUSS LABOR TEMPLE

Committee of Building Trades Council Will Meet This Evening.

The committee of the Building Trades Council having charge of arrangements for Oakland's new labor temple will meet tonight to discuss sites and plans. The committee is considering several plans and the one most suitable will be adopted. The site to be chosen will be near the business center of the city and when built Oakland's labor temple will have a labor temple that my city in the country would be proud of.

This temple will be complete in all its details and besides meeting halls and lecture rooms will contain billiard, bath, card and reception rooms, and probably a grill and reception rooms that will surpass any labor temple of the kind in the country.

The union men are all enthusiastic over their temple and the committee will have no trouble in raising the money necessary for its erection.

ESCAPE HORRIBLE DEATH ON LEDGE

Visalia Attorney and Wife Have Terrible Experience—Rescued From Being Crushed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—Living and bleeding on a ledge of rock which they had fallen from a trail fifty feet above, and in imminent peril of being dashed down 250 feet into the Cañon River, Charles G. Lawrence, a leading attorney of Visalia, and his wife narrowly escaped death last Tuesday morning near Polat Arena Hot Springs and now are safe under a physician's care, temporarily, at home. News of the accident, which is so near to tragedy, was brought to the city yesterday by returning tourists.

The couple were saved by a party which set out from the springs to their aid.

In their fall they started a rock slide, which almost buried them. Both were terribly cut and maimed and for a time lay stunned. Lawrence was caught beneath the slide, but his plucky wife, on regaining consciousness, crawled to the edge of the cliff to a point on the trail.

She was two hours in crawling a distance of about 10 feet along the trail to the trail, where friends discovered her, unconscious. Several times during the descent she faltered, and her husband, impaled beneath the rocks, expected to see her topple over to the river. But each time she clung to the wall, and only again gained ground in progress.

MT. DIABLO IS SWEEP BY A RAGING FOREST FIRE

ANTIOCH, Aug. 21.—A fire which started yesterday afternoon in the northern canyon west of Mt. Diablo, and burned thousands of acres of land covered with shrubbery and ferns. No one lives on the mountain, but in the summer time there are many campers in the various canyons, but it is believed that no lives were lost. A movement was on foot to build a hotel on the summit and make the place a resort, but this fire will cause the plan to be abandoned for the present.

$25

A Minute

SAY'S JUDGE

No. 53--Miss Laura Sanborn

CHICAGO.—The rates for speaking in Judge Golink's court at the Decatur street police station are the highest on record.

The Judge fixed the rates at $25 per minute, while valuation is not put on the personal effects of William Jennings Bryan or any of the famous national wind-jammers. Miss Stelle Morgan was the person whose minus or words were valued at $25 by the court. She was before the judge on account of a disturbance at Green and West Lake streets.

"I'll talk all I want to if it costs me $25," she insisted.

"You've talked one minute and it will cost you $25," replied the judge.

Prominent on the case declined that their losses had a woman's words been valued so highly. They expressed the opinion that the unlimited supply of feminine conversation in the past had reduced its pecuniary value and opined that Judge Golink's action, if followed by others, might tend to decrease the supply.

Platonic Love Is a Good Deal Like the Gun We Didn't Know Was Loaded.

Smart Set.

Love consists of bright eye-blinks, Thoughtless minds—distracted muskets; Pretty lips and gay mustaches; Hearts and hands. Then lovers bold Never think of lacking gold! Wedded life: when lack of cash is; Man of quarrels—and of clashes; Foggy bread and mouldy hashes—Then love from the window dashes, Tired of life, all sour and cold. Thus the tale is ever told.

The Mask

(By EDWARD WILBUR MASON)

"Lady, to the fair contest now Unwelcome and unkind,
I see the thorns upon thy brier
Why are the roses bidden?"

"Sir Knight, thou seest with eyes of care,
Let me entreat thee thy steed
And thy shaft see the blossoms fair
More warm than glowing bright."

"Lady, I fear thy flowers chaff;
I fear thy touch of pain,
Thy thorns my soul with terror fill
And I weep in vain."

"Sir Knight, the thorns are but thy tears,
Ye weep, thou foolish boy;
My roses are seen through tears
For lo, my man is joy!"

Twenty Comely Girls Are Willing to Wear DIREC'TOIRE

COLUMBUS, O.—The said State Board of Agriculture was so struck by the proposition of Philadelphia in a proposition to exhibit at the State Fair twenty comely girls wearing Directoire, that "Don't place us in the Midway," said Miss Delaney in her letter, "for we do not charge admission. We are simply trying to break down the prejudices against the new gown, and are willing to pay any reasonable sum for the privilege of thus exhibiting it at your fair." She also wishes to have privilege for the girls to leave the building where they are to be exhibited and stroll through the grounds. Miss Delaney does not give her street address, but says mail will bring her at the Philadelphia General Delivery.

The proposition has not been acted upon.

The Immortal.

BY MARJORIE L. C. PICKTHALL

Beauty is still immortal in our eyes.
When sways no more the spirit-haunted reed,
When the wild grape shall build
No more her canopies.
When blows no more the moon-gray thistle-seed,
When the last bell has lulled the white flocks home,
When the last eve has stilled
The wandering wing and touched the dying foam,
When the last moon burns low, and spark by spark,
The little worlds die out along the dark—

Beauty that rosed the moth-wing, touched the land
With clover-horns and delicate faint flowers;
Beauty that bade the showers
Beat on the violet's face,
Shall hold the eternal heavens within their place.
And hear new stars come singing from God's hand.

INVITED TO ELOPE HAS ADMIRER ARRESTED

NEW YORK.—Mrs. Helen Rodriguez of 201 Fifth street was complainant in the Yorkville Court against August Vogt, 201 Fifth street. She alleged that Vogt had planned to be a friend of her husband, who is in the country; that she thought Vogt was honest and did not hesitate to let him into the flat when he knocked. Then, she says, he told a gloomy story of how happy they would be if she would elope with him. She refused to listen to it.

Later in the day Vogt returned to the room, flourishing a revolver. She grabbed with him and got the weapon away. Patrolman Sloth of the Fifth street station happened along at the opportune moment and Vogt was arrested charged with attempted felonious assault.

"Nothing could be further from the fact. In the second third of the nineteenth century the movement was small

JULIA WARD HOWE Answers

ATTACK ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE MADE BY

MRS. HUMPHREY WARD

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, president of the New England Woman Suffrage Association, has sent a letter to Mrs. Humphrey Ward's recent attack upon the equal suffrage movement in America. Mrs. Ward said that the movement in this country was strong in the second third of the nineteenth century, but is now almost extinct, owing to the organized opposition of women. Mrs. Howe says:

"Of the fifty-six States of the Union there are anti-suffrage associations four and small anti-suffrage committees in ten more, while there suffrage associations in thirty-two States and several territories.

"In New York, at the time of the constitutional convention, the suffrage secured more than 300,000 signatures; and only six years ago the anti-suffrage petition presented to the convention contained 175,000 signatures. There were no petitions on the other side. In Chile, not long ago, ninety-seven organizations, with 10,000 women, petitioned for a woman suffrage clause in the new city charter, while only one small organization of women petitioned against it. In every State where petitions for suffrage remonstrances against it have been to the legislature, the petitioners have always outnumbered the remonstrants.

On the only occasion when the Government took an official referendum among the women in the subject in Massachusetts in 1898 the women's vote was in favor of suffrage 26 to 25.

"Of the women in America who take any lively interest in woman suffrage either way, the vast majority are in its favor."

Mrs. Howe quoted a large amount of testimony to show that woman suffrage has worked well in practice. She adds:

"Mrs. Ward ascribes all the defeats of woman suffrage bills to the organized opposition of women. In most of the States where such defeats have taken place there was no anti-suffrage organization of women at all. In the few cases where these organizations existed there is no reason to think that their influence turned the scale. Whittier said years ago that the men who were opposed to equal rights for women merely used the opposition of a few women as a cloak for their own hostility. This is equally true today. The great obstacle to woman suffrage is the inertia of conservatism, added to the strenuous opposition of the liquor interest and all the vicious elements."

RUNS AWAY WITH GIRL By Anchoring Pursuers With Eggs

NEW YORK.—Three young women accompanied by a bright looking college boy came out of a Sixtieth avenue restaurant which makes a specialty of midnight marriages and other forms of libidinous entertainment.

"Now, you two girls jump into this car and go home," urged the young man, "and I'll take Emily home. There's no use in me taking you up and then hitching over to Brooklyn with her."

"Oh, you're not going to get rid of us that way," protested the two young women. "We'll all go over to Emily's. You're not going to run off with her."

While the argument continued a produce wagon drove up and the driver descended with a basket filled with eggs. The young man had an inspiration.

"How many eggs have you in that basket?" asked the girl.

"Seven dozen," replied the driver.

"Want do you get for them?"

"Will you sell them to me for thirty?"

"Sure."

"Well, I'll take 'em," and the young woman produced the money.

"Here girls," he said, "we'll have some fun. I'll show you Nettie, you and Bessie hold up your dresses and take the eggs until I borrow a basket inside."

THEIR ESCAPE.

"We don't mind holding the eggs," said Nettie, and she and Bessie formed nests of their dresses for the eggs.

"I want her to help me," replied the young man, who was industriously transferring the eggs from the basket to the improved nests.

When the transfers had been completed the youngster called an hansom driver and minded him a bill.

"Howe," he said, "you take these two young ladies home."

"Pursuing to Emily he said: "Come on,"

and they disappeared around the corner in the dark.

But in less than ten minutes the man who had sold the eggs relieved the amateurised young women by taking their burdens from them. They climbed into the hansom, eloquent in their predictions of what would happen to the young man when next they met him.

NO RACE SUICIDE 58 CHILDREN IN 6 FAMILIES

NEW YORK.—Two or three hundred men and women and a small contingent of unmarried ones gathered at a meeting of the People's Institute at East Fifteenth street, and settled to live happily and truly in wedlock.

When Wels finished Miss Mollie Schatzoff, in a princess gown, took the floor and declared for marriage, home, and horn.

"Marriage is essential to happiness," she asserted, "but the trouble is that we get married too quickly. Man takes more time to choose a horse than he does a wife, and a woman takes more time to choose a gown than she does a husband."

"I'm waiting for Mr. Right to come along, and I hope I'll be able to recognize him. But it's too bad that men can't study wives and be sure of them as they are when buying a horse. They can't look into a woman's teeth and tell how old she is and they can't examine her feet to see if she is sound."

Charles R. Walker asserted that the present system of marriage is yet on trial. He pointed to the police records of a thousand cases of desertion in a year to prove that a better system is needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Detlych, sixteen children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bradley, fifteen children.

Mr. and Mrs. John Finan, nine children.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kelly, five children.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schmitts, seven children.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Peplington, six children.

And they're all happy—fifty-eight count them, fifty-eight!

Want Women TO RUN FOR OFFICE IN London Elections

The Woman's Social Government Society is promoting the candidacy of suitable women at the next elections to the London borough and town councils. A conference on the subject was held at the house of Mrs. Milhilland, where eighty persons attended from eight countries. The meeting was addressed by Miss Stuton, town councilor of Reading, and Mr. Cloots of the National Vigilance association. Local conferences were recommended as a means of arousing interest, and also the holding of classes for instruction in the duties of citizens.

In many localities people are uncertain whether they should induce women who are strong political candidates to become candidates, and it was interesting to note that the speakers at the conference on the whole inclined to think it wiser, when possible, to get women to stand on non-partisan lines, as by so doing they more readily could lead electors to appreciate the gain it would be to have the co-operation of women in local administration.

In Birmingham the Women's Labor League hopes to support a woman candidate, Miss Margaret Smith. In Cambridge many of the leading members of the university and town residents are being invited to join a large general committee for the support of women candidates.

REAL LIVE MAN HUNT ON AFTER SAFE-CRACKERS

50,000 HEAR TAFT MAKE REPLY TO ALL THE QUERIES OF BRYAN

"The People Have Ruled Through the Republican Party," Is the Republican Candidate's Answering Message to Vast Concource.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Aug. 21.—"The people have ruled through the Republican party," said William H. Taft's answer to Mr. Bryan's challenge, "Shall the people rule?"

The answer was made in an address the Republican Presidential candidate made today before a gathering of several thousand Virginia Republicans who came to the mountains to see and hear him, and to celebrate Virginia Day.

To make his point perfectly clear, Mr. Taft referred to McKinley's election as "one of the most intelligent and effective expressions of popular will ever manifested in the world and the maintenance of the gold standard and a protective tariff by his administration was a correct interpretation of the people's will. This was shown to be so," he continued, "by even a greater majority of the party in 1904 and a still greater majority in 1904, when Roosevelt was elected, and," he added, "we well may submit to the country whether the administration has not expressed the will of the people."

Replies to Bryan.

Preceding Mr. Taft in a short address, Congressman C. S. Stump had this to say in answer to the same questions:

"Can it be possible that he (Bryan) had reference to the political situation in Virginia? Does he not know that under existing laws sixty per cent of the white and ninety per cent of the colored population of voting age have been disenfranchised?" Does he not know that they have no voice in the government of either this State or this nation and can he call this a rule of the people?" No wonder Mr. Bryan will make no political speeches in the South. Conditions here don't square with his battle cry."

50,000 Persons Present.

Mr. Taft was surrounded during his speech by approximately 50,000 people. Accompanied by Mrs. Taft, Colonel B. S. Allen and Representative Stump, he drove to the ball park in a roadster with Charlie Taft at the box with the driver, Mr. Vorys, and Alvin Martin, naturalized citizen from Virginia, accompanied the party in another carriage. The scene at the park was typical of a real country picnic. There were seats for but a few hundred. While the thousands had to stand or sit on the ground. Mr. Taft occupied a bassinet-shaped platform stand in front of the bleacher benches. After introduced by Colonel Allen and his reception was cordial and his speech heartily applauded.

Taft's Address

Mr. Taft reviewed the record of the last Democratic party from the time of the last Democratic administration in 1902.

"During this period," he said, "it repealed the McKinley tariff bill passed in 1902 and enacted the German-Wilson tariff bill of 1893. With the support of Democratic majorities for revenues and under the operation of the German-Wilson tariff bill subsequently passed a period of industrial depression set in which continued through the next Presidential campaign of 1896."

As soon as the Republican party came into power in 1897, he said, it repealed the German-Wilson tariff bill and enacted the present Mingle tariff bill, and with the assurance of an honest monetary standard confidence was restored and a period of expansion and prosperity followed to an extent never before known in the history of the world.

Wages Never So High.

Wages were never so high, he declared, and the high standard of wage earners, farmers and business men in point of comfort, enjoyment of life, was advanced.

Attending this great prosperity abuses developed, growing out of the dishonesty of prominent men culminated with the management of the business of others and of a greed of financial power of some stimulated by the enormous success incident to the combination of capital in large corporations.

These abuses, he said, chiefly took the form of violation of the anti-trust law and graft, rebates and discriminations by railroads and shippers. When the extent of these evils was brought home to the people, he said, President Roosevelt invoked the attention of Congress and the public to them and proceeded to enforce the laws then on the statute books.

Ament the Big Trusts.

"It was not," he said, "until Mr. Roosevelt, realizing to the full the danger to which our society was exposed unless the offending corporations, railways and industrial, were made to obey and fear the law, took vigorous action in the recommendation of new legislation and the recommendation of the old, that anything very effective was done to check the growing evil."

The Republican Congress, which had been elected with Roosevelt in 1904, Mr. Taft said, made a record for remedial legislation along the lines recommended by the President, which, as he has said himself, has never been equalled in our time. Mr. Taft referred to the railway rate law, the law creating the bureau of corporations, the pure food bill and the

BONDS SHOULD BE VOTED BY FRUITVILE

Why Proposition for Greatly Needed Schools Should Carry.

County Superintendent of Schools George W. Fitch was interviewed today on the school bond election for bonding Fruitvale school district for one hundred thousand dollars to take place next Saturday, August 22, 1908.

Mr. Fitch is very heavily in favor of the proposition and gave apparently unanswerable arguments in favor of the same. It would seem from the facts presented by him that the bond would be a tremendous necessity which cannot be longer delayed for the interest of the school children in that rapidly-growing section of the county. The records in Mr. Fitch's office show that there are 114 families in the Fruitvale school district, 2120 census children between the ages of 5 and 17 years and 39 teachers.

These figures entitle the district to be considered virtually a municipality and the school authorities are bound to provide facilities equal to those to be found in city schools. On the contrary, these children and the teachers have to be housed in three school houses. Some of the primary classes are compelled to be conducted in half-day sessions. Many classes are sandwiched in cubby holes in the basements and other devices expedient in need are resorted to provide schooling for children at all.

From a business point of view, progressive property owners know that the first question asked by new-comers is: "What is the character of your schools?" and Fruitvale cannot afford to continue the present school conditions, from a financial standpoint as well as from the point of view of the best interests of their children.

The figure illustrates the wonderful growth of that section of the county, the John C. Fremont High School, established less than three years ago at Melrose, with an enrollment of 40 pupils, now has an enrollment of nearly 400.

Sometime ago a bond election was held, at which the proposition of building additions to the three existing school houses was voted down on the ground that it would be better to build other school buildings to accommodate the children of the expanded territory and also the argument was used that it was bad policy to patch old buildings. These objections having been entirely removed by the projectors of the present bond proposition, it would seem that the bonds could carry by a practically unanimous vote.

WHOLESALE TANGLE IN ESCAPE IN MURDER OF TREADWELL FAMILY FUSILLADE OF SHOTS

Revolutionists Weak Terrible Vengeance on Supposed Traitors, Blowing Up Home and Shooting Victims.

Prosecution Discovers That Two of the Talesmen Examined Are Recent Arrivals from Shasta County.

San Francisco Safecrackers Surprised at Work Get Away Amidst Many Volleys of Bullets.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—News has reached this city of a terrible vengeance taken by the revolutionists of Yerukovka in Yekaterinoslav Province upon a Jewish family named Edelstein, who were accused of giving information to the authorities regarding the activities of the agitators. They went to the Edelstein house at night, threw two bombs through the window and opened fire on members of the family with revolvers and shot to death the father, a daughter, a woman guest and her child. The mother, a son, a son-in-law and two grandsons were severely wounded.

After the murderous onslaught the revolutionists temporarily retired and help for the wounded was summoned. In the course of a couple of hours the victims who were still alive had been conveyed to a hospital.

Not satisfied with their vengeance the revolutionists, now a well armed band of about 40 or 50 men, marched upon the hospital, overpowered the nurses and matrons and shot to death the mother and son, after which they made their escape.

Another dispatch from the provinces received here says that prisoners in the Saratov on discovering that two of their comrades were traitors fell upon them and beat them to death.

Not satisfied with their vengeance the revolutionists, now a well armed band of about 40 or 50 men, marched upon the hospital, overpowered the nurses and matrons and shot to death the mother and son, after which they made their escape.

Deputy Sheriff J. S. Young stated that he summoned Smith, but when the latter gave his reply to the question of Attorney Cook he said that he had been summoned by A. W. Bowman, a relative, who also is from Shasta County. Attorney Cook hinted that it was peculiar that Smith and Bowman, both from Shasta County, should be on the panel and that one should have summoned the other.

Attorney Dozier consented to the excusing of Smith, who affirmed that he was too ill to serve, and Attorney Cook had not yet questioned Bowman as to his friendliness toward Dozier and the defense when the noon adjournment was taken.

While working on the inside, they had fastened the door, thus deceiving the passing policemen.

Two stood talking together for a few moments, when suddenly they observed two men issuing from the tank company's office a block and a half away and set out in pursuit. Believing that the two men might escape them, the two men might escape them, they drew their revolver and fired one shot, which was returned four-fold by the burglars, who separated, one of them running across Market street and the second across Davis and up California street.

FOUND A MASK.

The officers pursued but the fugitives had too great a start and they were unable to overtake them. Return ing to the scene, they were joined by Policeman Hanrahan, who had picked up a hammer, chisel and punch such as are used for cracking safes. Inside near the door of the vault, a white mask was discovered, but the burglars had been frightened away before they could open the safe.

While working on the inside, they had fastened the door, thus deceiving the passing policemen.

KETCHEL AND PAPKE SQUABBLE OVER WEIGHT

Los Angeles Promoters May Have Trouble in Bringing the Fighters Together; Ketchel Invests in Flats.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

Mr. William Papke, Illinois thunderbolt and erstwhile fighter of more than ordinary ability, who a few months ago stayed ten rounds with Stanley Ketchel, losing the decision at the end of the contest, has decided that the Michigander is too tough to tackle at his own weight and has decided that he will hold out for a low weighting for the second meeting in hope of sapping some of the wonderful vitality and strength of the young boxer. When Papke and Ketchel fought at Milwaukee, Papke weighed 162 pounds, Ketchel weighed 158 pounds. Now Papke wants the same weight that he demanded before, but did not get, and Ketchel wants 158 pounds a few hours prior to ring time.

Manager Jones is speaking for Papke, says that he will go through with his plans for the contest at Los Angeles because he wants to make a name. But Long says that if the baron was able to get Ketchel he would sign up with Papke.

Now Papke has done his share, and it is up to Jones to make good. If the match is made, however, it must be at 158 pounds, for with Ketchel, Joe O'Connor has the card and the writing hand, so it goes without saying that he will make himself heard for the weight idea.

KETCHEL GOES SOUTH. There is just this much about the chances of a fight. The Los Angeles promoters getting the contest. There is no one else in the East that Papke has left to fight, with whom he can draw a big house, unless it be Kelly, and they would not draw the crowd they did the last time out, and for that reason he will no doubt be willing to tackle Ketchel with a little the worse of the articles of agreement.

Ketchel will leave for Los Angeles tomorrow and the arrangements for the contest will be made and the training and reducing to weight will be started.

Ketchel and O'Connor yesterday made the first move for perpetuating an income for the fighter when they purchased a lot on the corner of Leavenworth and Clay streets, Los Angeles, for $10,000, and there that would make improvements on it to the value of $1,000.

It is said that the fighter intends following in the footsteps of Jimmy Britt and Elbows McFadden, the flat owners, by erecting a row of fine flats. Battling Nelson and many other fighters have found the realty business profitable, and it is well that Ketchel has taken this step toward having something when he is through with the game.

EASTERN TALK. Stanley is much worried over the stand that some of the papers are taking in the East regarding the manner in which he lives, it being claimed he leads a fast life. This is anything but true, and also the stand his manager has taken on the color line.

Sam Langford has sent word here that he will agree to stop Ketchel in ten rounds, and all that sort of press stuff and it has netted the new champion to that extent that he would take the colored gent on at short notice were it not that the new champion desired it.

Battling, will, which means that while all the way to bat. Johnson started out a single, and Langford attempted to step Casey at third, but he had no engagement with any one there for the phenom was vacant, and Casey came home on the understanding. Duzinkie batted a bunch which advanced Johnson. Trotter followed to Fischer, and gave Bassey a stop to the home plate.

HEITMULLER LEADS RALLY.

The Oaks bats all failed to their record except when they scored a run after two men were dead. Heitmuller batted off with a drive to the right field fence. Eagan had his sights misplaced and had to take the air-line to the bench. Cook sent a star-schmeier to Ryan. Lewis pouted a pleasant single into left field, followed by one into center by Trotter, giving Portland one more run, binding the stop and Smith volunteered to fill in until another man could be secured. However, he made such a good showing in this position that he was given the assignment the season and if he had had more experience there is no doubt but that he would have been grabbed up by the big league clubs.

Cleaves was very sweet on Smith and other of the big league scouts were attracted to the Texan by his great fielding and good all-around play.

Johnson was very sweet on Smith and other of the big league scouts were attracted to the Texan by his great fielding and good all-around play.

Heitmuller, however, had not been made a credibility showing on leaving the support that he had shown under.

THIRTEEN HITS. The Beavers were able to sting his defense for thirteen hits, many of them long ones but they were all innately with the batting gem.

In long drives, Ote Johnson drew a premium, and he hit one of Thirteen curves out of the diamond via the elevation over the left field fence. It was in the opening inning, with two down and nobody on bases, and the crowd cheered lustily when the tall Northerner equalized and more truck Eagan's great hitting.

The Bright Spot
in a Dull Day

The bright spot in a dull day is Shredded Wheat
with berries and cream. If you haven't tried it, you don't know all the joys of summer. A pleasant surprise for the stomach after the heavy meats and soggy pastries of the winter. Give Nature a chance. Shredded Wheat with fruit is wholesome, strengthening and satisfying. At your grocers.

Always heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with milk or cream will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work. Try Toasted TRISCUIT, the Shredded Wheat wafer, for luncheon, with butter, cheese or marmalade.

WOMEN ACT CAUSE OF THE BIG FIRES AS RURAL CARRIERS

Many Fair Sex Take the Mail Through Country; One Says 'Everybody Is Awfully Good to Me.'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Positions as rural carriers are not supposed to be attractive to women and the post-office department does not encourage their employment as such but an increasing number of women are invading the rural delivery field, sometimes as regular carriers and more frequently as substitutes.

Assistant Postmaster General De Gravé is authority for the statement that when women obtain places as rural carriers, they invariably accept cheerfully the hardships that accompany the work in bad conditions of road and weather and vie with the male carriers in enthusiasm over their work.

An example of this enthusiasm is shown in a report received at the department of the case of Miss Lenna Sennott, who is the substitute carrier on a twenty-six-mile route in one of the New England States. Miss Sennott has held the position for three years and, although the route is a long one and is thickly wooded in some sections, Miss Sennott says she has no fear in driving over the route alone. She carries no weapon of defense but considers that she is able to take care of herself.

TOOK HIS BLUFF. When asked what induced her to enter the service, Miss Sennott said that one day, about three years ago, the regular carrier told her that he was unable to find a substitute and jokingly asked her if she would like to substitute for him.

"I told him I would like to be his assistant or substitute," said Miss Sennott, "providing he had horses that had some life. He agreed he had good horses so I was sworn in as his substitute. The horses are all right, they pick up their ears and step in good shape when they meet an electric car or an automobile. They are the kind I like to drive."

The horses are all right, they pick up their ears and step in good shape when they meet an electric car or an automobile. They are the kind I like to drive."

EVERYBODY SMILES.

"I am met with a smile by all the patrons along the route, even the dogs won't bark at me. Yes, there are some places pretty thickly wooded, but that don't worry Lenna Sennot or any. I never carry a gun or any other weapon save the ones that were born with me. I don't say I am boxer, but I can hold my end of a tussle with anyone. No, I have never been afraid because there is nothing to fear. I have everyone wearing a smile and for that reason I believe I have their good will."

LEHNHARDT WILL CAP CLIMAX

Great Dessert Arranged For Sunday--Expects Heavy Orders to Come by Phone.

Lehnhardt the candy man, is busily preparing with enthusiasm over an unique frozen dessert which he has planned for next Sunday.

"These Sunday desserts are rather difficult to get up," said Mr. Lehnhardt to a TRIBUNE representative this morning, "and I naturally feel elated when I strike something especially good. We have been experimenting during the past ten days on Delmonico Ice Cream the cream that created such a furor a few weeks ago, and it occurred to me to combine crushed fruits with the Delmonico Ice Cream. We tried it and I was surprised at the result. Of course this made a rather rich combination so we concluded to combine it in a block with crushed raspberry water ice and vanilla ice cream.

Lehnhardt's enthusiasm regarding this dessert is certainly well founded, for it is assuredly a most delicious combination. His success in getting up original novelties in frozen desserts has taken the town by storm and hundreds of the clever housekeepers of Oakland and vicinity telephone every week for his dessert and serve it at their Sunday dinners.

"I find that nearly everybody who orders one of my Sunday desserts always continues to order each Sunday," continued Mr. Lehnhardt. The people of Oakland have caught the idea and lots of them depend upon me for their dessert for Sunday's dinner. I hope none of my old customers will miss the one for next Sunday as it is so fine."

Mr. Lehnhardt desires it to be stated that orders should be sent in Friday night if possible and that the best way to do is to telephone Oakland 487 or Home phone A3407.

DOGS POISONED AS RESULT OF A NEIGHBORHOOD QUARREL

Police Are Asked to Investigate Death of Valuable Canines

On four kennels on 14th avenue the crepe is hanging. Four homes have lost their canine pets and four families are ready to raise their voices in the outcry. The militant party of avengers includes one police fighter, one attorney and two business men. Within thirty-six hours the four dogs came struggling home gripped in the fatal spasms of poisoning and each died in the doorway of its master's home.

The list of dogs includes a pedigree Irish pointer hunting dog owned by Attorney W. S. Goodfellow, 141 Fifth Avenue, a valuable Spitz dog owned by H. Duncan, 208 Eighth street, a cocker spaniel owned by Tommy Burns of pink tailoring fame and valued at $100 which was kept at the home of Burns' brother-in-law, E. C. Keating, 928 14th Avenue, and a rat terrier which is the pride of Trinity pet of M. J. Tapp, 9-5 Fifth Avenue.

A NEIGHBORHOOD QUARREL The energetic investigation of the mysterious death and their causes will be carried on by the police and the owners of the dogs will fully involve neighborhood dog and cat fanciers while bringing general skeletons to light to some of the masters of the poisoning trade with bloody tracks to the doorsteps of a neighbor. Another is remembered that he had a horse poisoned several months ago and at that time he suspected and accused a resident in the immediate neighborhood. As such it doesn't occur more firmly was the finger of suspicion shaken first at one neighbor and then at another.

POLICE NOTIFIED

As soon as the valuable Spaniel dog owned by Tommy Burns died the police were notified and Chief of Police W. F. Donohue personally investigating the affair. The owners of the animal are awaiting the findings of the police before any charges or accusations are made but they do not conceal their suspicion from the police.

DETROIT MI Aug. 21.—C. R. Rusk, wanted in San Francisco to answer a charge of grand larceny, waived extradition and started for the West today in charge of a San Francisco detective. Rusk is alleged to have taken the $4000 insurance money received by a widow whose boarding house was destroyed at the time of the big earthquake.

IDENTIFIED ACCUSED.

The dying man lingered for almost a week in the receiving hospital and Providence hospital during which final arguments in the case of Chen Goo, alias Chen Tzu, who is standing trial in the criminal department of the Superior Court, charged with the murder of Lee Hong, another Chinese and member of the Wong Kong Tong, were this morning submitted by Attorney Stanley Moore, representing the defendant and Deputy District Attorney Phil M. Carter, who is prosecuting the case for the state.

Lee Hong, a prominent bookbinder of the Wong Kong Tong Society, was brutally murdered at the corner of Third and Harrison streets on the night of April 30 last year, being shot three times in the abdomen by a party of strangers who approached him from behind. It is commonly believed that the big mafioso were members of the Honan Tong, a local organization with whom Hong and his associates had been waging bitter warfare for months preceding the shooting.

PoISONER WAS WISE

The method of poisoning employed seems to be a clever one. The Burns dog will eat only meat prepared in a certain manner, and milk slightly sweetened yet it fell a victim of the fatal moratorium to the dogs that were poisoned.

Two diets, one with discrimination and one without, would refuse to eat the same article of food for dogs. The neighbors say that this fact alone indicates that the poisoner knew the peculiar taste of each dog and catered to that palate.

POISON POWERFUL.

The poison used was powerful as several of the dogs bled profusely from the nose during their writhings. The Goodfellow dog was seen leaving the scene ten minutes before it returned to roll in death agony and the observer who witnessed it was noted by observers.

Three of the kennels in the neighborhood have been visited and found to know the identity of the guilty party but cannot prove his guilt. But they do know that the party has been tried and found guilty in the court of gossip.

MILLIONAIRE IN NOVEL LAYS BARE THE GREED AND LUST OF THE HIGHEST SOCIETY

Joseph Medill Patterson of Chicago Draws a Revolting Picture of the Life of the Very Rich.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Society is held seamy side out to the gaze of the world in a realistic novel called "A Little Brother of the Rich," by Joseph Medill Patterson.

It is a pitiless light from within the innermost sanctum of Chicago's first families that the author turns upon the lives of the rich and elect.

The writer is the son of R. W. Patterson, the millionaire newspaper publisher, and is a grandson of Joseph Medill. He is a millionaire himself and will be heir to many more millions. His wife is a daughter of Harlow N. Higinbotham, who was Marshall Field's partner.

KNOWS WHERECFF HE WRITES.

From birth he has been welcomed to all that Chicago's most exclusive society calls its own. And in this book he tells from his individual viewpoint, of life as he found it within the narrow barriers that shut the world out and bound that mystic institution, society.

Summed up in a sentence, Patterson's book presents a picture of society, and incidentally of the stage, which if it were true, is too vile and revolting for words. According to "A Little Brother of the Rich," every fashionable woman drinks to excess, is animated by absolutely no thought except vulgar display, the gratification of animal passion and an insatiate greed for money, and cares nothing for the means by which this money is obtained.

Upon the outer cover of the book, blazoned in garish yellow upon blue, are two hands, palms upward, fingers reaching apart, and a money bag at the quarry. That typifies the main, though not the sole, arrangement of society in the story.

PARADE THIS WOMAN.

The sweetest ambition of the society man he describes is a desire to walk down Broadway at 2 o'clock in the morning with the most stunning woman on this avenue of continental fashions.

The author pays this tribute to New York: "Look," said he, pointing to me, "there's New York—New York, strong enough to ensnare a continent, fitly enough to poison heaven above."

Another extract: "Men are natural polygamists, anyhow, I guess, and it is not virtue so much as want of the price which keeps most of the straight ones straight."

A PICTURE OF SUCCESS.

The story centers upon the evolution of the hero, Paul Potter, a poor little orphan child. He finds him an Indiana youth in love with a country girl, and guided by the honesty of his environment. He goes to college and is distinguished by athletic genius, becomes the favorite of some millionaire college mates and is patronized.

GOOD GOODS

Busy Days Result from a Store Filled With Fall Goods at Right Prices

Great Quantities of Goods are Arriving Daily, and are Put Out Immediately for You to See and Buy

Records are being broken during this busy month, not only in the way of showing an unusual assortment of the newest Fall goods somewhat earlier than usual, but also because of the low prices we are quoting. Our buyers secured some great values while in the East, and buying for our six stores secured some stocks which a small firm could not hope to handle. We divide them up among our stores, and then offer goods for sale at prices which do not half express the high quality of the goods themselves. We always look for quality first, and depend upon our six-power buying organization for the low prices—and we generally get them, and then pass them on to you.

Women's Silk Stockings at Unusual Prices

$1.00 Pr.

Pure Silk Thread; Double Heel, Sole and Toe.
Colors: Tan, Gray, Blue, Brown, Black, Pink, Etc.

$1.00 Pr.

One of the best offerings of a month of attractive values. A fine quality silk stocking, reinforced on the sole, heel and toe, and to be had in almost every wanted color. A large assortment of stockings at this price means that no one is likely to be disappointed in getting the color wanted, but as the price is so low that most women will probably get several pairs early shopping is advised. Included in the lot is a choice line of silk stockings at $1.50, which have been greatly reduced; also some children's lisle lace stockings at 25c pair.

At $1.00 Pair Pure Silk Thread Stockings made of twisted pure silk with double sole, heel and toe; full fashioned with extra elastic top; colors, including pink, light blue, lavender, cardinal, seal brown, tan, gray, yellow, white, navy and black.

At $1.50 Pair Pure Silk Thread Stockings, hand-embroidered in heavy silk—one of the best values we have ever offered in silk stockings. Made with extra heavy double silk heel and toe; and to be had in all the new shades of pink, blue, cardinal, navy, champagne, tan, brown, Copenhagen, lavender, black and white—and made to sell at a decided advance on the price at which we offer them.

Children's Silk Lisle Lace Stockings, 25c Pair

Imported silk lisle lace stockings, full fashioned, and made with double sole, heel and toe—a stocking built to stand wear, and may be had in black, tan or white, in all sizes.

Our New School Coats For Girls are Stylish and Attractive.

Priced from $2.95 to $10 each

Cold weather makes some kind of a coat necessary for the girls going to school, and we have secured a splendid lot of new coats in a number of different styles, and made of different materials, and placed them on sale at prices which will make it a comparatively easy matter to get just the coat suited to the individual and to the pocket-book. We have listed four of our best grades, and have others at even higher prices.

School Coat made of navy blue melton cloth; flap pockets; collar, sleeves and pockets piped in red; trimmed with buttons. Price $2.95. Also many others at same price.

Long School Coat made of brown plaid material; flap pockets; collar, trimmed with brown velvet and braid and very pretty buttons; also many others at $3.95.

Box Coat strictly tailored; made of mixed wool material; velvet collar; trimmed with pretty buttons; also many other styles at $5.00.

Long Light Tan Broadcloth Coat flap pockets; collar and cuffs of velvet; trimmed with pretty buttons; price $6.75.

Others at $7.95, $8.95 and $10.00.

Good Values in Women's Fall Waists at $3.95 and $5.00

Including Net, Plaid, Striped and Taffeta Silk Waists.

Already we have sold a large number of these waists since they were first placed on sale this week. They are the delight of every woman who sees them—and it is pretty hard to resist buying several of them. Practically every good and popular style for Fall is included in the lot, and besides our $3.95 and $5.00 values, we have other waists ranging in price to $18.75.

At $3.95 WHITE NET WAIST; whole front made of cluny lace; trimmed with fancy silk rings down the front; back tucked with lace and tucked; full sleeve with insertion of lace running around; lace cuffs and collar.

At $5 WHITE NET WAIST; front of insertion of lace; lapels over the shoulders; prettily joined; full tucked sleeves; lace edging running around cuffs; four rows of insertion; lace collar tucked with lace edging.

At $3.95 GRAY AND WHITE STRIPED SILK WAIST; front with cluster of tucks; trimmed with fancy white silk French knots; open in back; short sleeves; collar and cuffs.

At $5 FALL PLAID SILK WAIST; front made of silk bands stitched to form a yoke; cluster of tucks on each side of yoke, also trimmed with buttons; open back; full sleeves; three-quarter length; shaped collar with tailored bow; turn back cuffs. These come in brown, blue and garnet plaid.

At $5 BLACK TAFFETA SILK WAIST; strictly tailored front with inverted plait trim; med with fancy black braid; tailor shape collar with bow; long sleeves; open in back; sleeves tucked, with tucked cuffs.

Others at $6.75, $7.95 and $10.00.

2000 Yards of 2 3/4 Inch Taffeta

Ribbon at 10c

This is a brand new ribbon which we have not shown before, and it is not going too far to say that we could sell it for almost twice this value at times. It is an extra firm taffeta, in several colors, including blue, white, pink, cardinal, Nile, maize, tan, brown, black, yellow and violet.

Short Length Embroideries. 10c

A stock of "left-overs" remaining from one of our big embroidery sales. Made up short lengths of all the popular embroideries shown at a recent sale. We want to get rid of them. Lengths are from one yard to 3 1/2 yards; widths from 3 to 18 inches. You'll find edgings, bands, corset covers and insertions. We haven't a great many, and late shoppers in this department may be disappointed.

Women's Handkerchiefs at Half--5c

A collection of sheer lawn handkerchiefs; white grounds with a tiny colored stripe forming a check, with embroidered dots alternating. Many are a little mussed from handling, otherwise perfect.

WHY JUDICIARY SHOULD BE FREE FROM POLITICS

Justice R. B. Tappan of Alameda Sets Forth His Views on Subject

ALAMEDA, Aug. 21.—City Justice Robert B. Tappan believes that the judiciary should be kept out of politics and that magistrates who have proven themselves honorable and able should be retained on the bench. In line with his belief City Justice Tappan today gave out the following statement touching upon the political situation in Alameda county, as far as the judiciary is concerned:

"I think it not at all probable that the Lincoln-Roosevelt League delegates to the Republican county convention, which will convene in Oakland tomorrow, will attempt to blockade any one or all of the incumbent county judges. There have been intimations from some sources that possibly one of these incumbents may have some unpledged presentations before him to end up with which would result in the L. R. League electing him throughout their party that it endorsed the incumbent county judges who seek nomination. Most of those who voted the L. R. ticket certainly expect their choice of delegates if elected, to support these incumbent judges."

POLITICAL TRICK.

"I promise and to announce the intention of supporting those incumbent judges as successful at the polls and then after success to fall to keep that promise and not to give that support would be such a political trick as the L. R. league has been denominating so vigorously of late."

"I am satisfied that the law-abiding element would be disappointed if the league should fail to make good on their promise and to give that support would be such a political trick as the L. R. league has been denominating so vigorously of late."

WANT HONEST AND ABLE MEN.

"I say that past Republican leaders of this county want honest and able men on the bench and when they assist to place them in office they ask nothing in return but fairness to all the people."

"The following practice ought to be discontinued, however, by all political parties and that is:

"A lawyer who makes, or makes people think he makes, county judges in conventions ought to keep out of the county court rooms while the court is in session. Not infrequently we see judge-making lawyers strutting around in the crowded court room who seem to say 'See, I am fit. I got that judge's nomination.'

"On the other side, the following questions arise sometimes: Where a wise-pulling lawyer politician appears in court before a judge who nomination depends on a convention and fights litigation before this judge how far is the shadow cast? If this same lawyer is fighting a million dollar case in this court today, if, tomorrow, he is going to control the nomination for judge in that convention, if the judge trying this case is candidate for that nomination before that convention, how far is the shadow cast? What does the non-political lawyer on the other side think of this situation?"

"It is up to the political convention to keep the judiciary out of politics and it is not up to the judicial candidates to keep out if the conventions keep the bar down."

HONESTY SEEKING OFFICE.

"It has been said that a certain clique has dominated Republican politics in our county for about thirty years. What if during those years Lincoln or Roosevelt had been in our state and had sought and had received nominations from the Republican leader? An honest man can receive nominations from conventions and from presidencies of these counties and maintain his independence and dignity yet maintain his office and position. If honest and able men had not sought nominations from the political leaders how would these important offices have been filled? How did such honorable and learned men as Chief Justices Field, Morrison and Beaton, etc., get office? How did such honorable and learned men as Judges Irene McKee and Nye ever get their nominations? How did that able jurist, Judge Dehaven, ever get nomination?"

"An able and an intelligent lawyer elevated to the county bench by the L. R. League delegates will not discharge the duties of the office any less ably than more honest than the able and intelligent lawyers elevated to the bench by the Republican or Democratic political leaders or by the leaders of any political party. What virtues are possessed by one able and learned lawyer which virtues are not possessed by other able and learned lawyers?

JUDGES IMPARTIAL.

"Do we ever hear of any intelligent law-abiding citizen speaking or writing slightlyingly of the political activities of judges? Our judges treat corruption as fairly as do other intelligent men."

"The Southern Pacific when in its election should receive the same fairness that is accorded other litigants. Neither the Southern Pacific nor any other litigant receives favors from these county judges."

"Our nominations for county judges should now be taken out of politics and the L. R. League can set the example."

"The incumbents have been tried and have shown their honesty, integrity and learning in the past and people have confidence in them one and all."

"I am satisfied that the law-abiding element would be disappointed if the league should fail to make good on their promise and to give that support would be such a political trick as the L. R. league has been denominating so vigorously of late."

WILL PROBABLY NOMINATE HUGHES WITHOUT OPPOSITION

Conferences at Oyster Bay Decide Present Governor Is the Man

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—A report was made at Republican national headquarters today by James B. Sherman, Republican candidate for Vice-President, confirming the Associated Press dispatch from Oyster Bay, N. Y., that President Roosevelt's conference with party leaders at Sherman's home yesterday had developed that political exigencies demand the re-nomination of Governor Hughes. Chairman Hitchcock was present when Sherman stated the results of the conference and he assented to all the Vice-Presidential nominees said.

NO OTHER CANDIDATE.

The statement made today unquestionably will put an end to organized opposition to the candidacy of Governor Hughes, although it is possible certain individuals will continue to voice protests. With President Roosevelt, Judge Taft, Sherman, Hitchcock, several New York members in Congress and other State leaders for Hughes, it was not believed possible that the fight against the renomination of Hughes can gain any headway.

In fact, political leaders are now predicting that no other name will be presented to the convention. Sherman and Hitchcock arrived at Republican headquarters today, shortly after 11 o'clock. No explanation was made of the fact that yesterday, after their return from Oyster Bay, they had not kept an appointment with newspapermen. Hitchcock was asked for an statement concerning the conference at Oyster Bay, but he said that he preferred the announcement should be made by Sherman.

Without hesitancy, Sherman said: "Well, the consensus of opinion among those who gathered at Oyster Bay to confer with the President was favorable to the renomination of Governor Hughes. It was developed by the reports received that the candidacy of Hughes is broader than any of the State lines. The movement in the State seemed to be decidedly toward giving Governor Hughes another term."

Sherman would not say what President Roosevelt's views had been or what he had said in regard to the Hughes matter.

Finally she admitted that she had not told the truth as to her whereabouts during her absence from home.

"She finally admitted that Annis had wounded her after Captain Hains had gone to the Philippines.

MET IN APARTMENT.

"Annis, Mrs. Hains said, took her from her home to the apartment of a well known man in this city more than once. These clandestine meetings led to Mrs. Hains becoming evidence.

"Annis took Mrs. Hains to a physician, who performed an operation, whose name Mrs. Hains gave." Mrs. Hains, when interviewed in Boston, declared that she had been terribly mistreated and misrepresented by her husband and his brother, and did not ask for money to get rid of him. "My husband and his brother are very evil, she said. "I hope they will both be strung up. Thornton Hains is an arch-fiend. He is responsible for it all. Those scoundrels are capable of anything. In my husband's absence Thornton Hains, the villain, tried to make love to me, and I hated him. I was beaten savagely and crazed until I signed some papers (her alleged confession). They may have been a blank for all I can recall."

FEARED FOR LIFE.

"Peter Hains is a brute, but I would have borne with him for my children's sake. My husband beat me many times. He would have shot me, too. I had thought he would seek me out and kill me. The reasons, I hope they will both be hanged. My poor babies! What will become of them?"

"My husband was a brute, but he is also a beast," she added. "I never thought that the man I have stood by that man and his second son Thornton. Thornton is a murderer at heart, and my husband a willing tool. How I pity poor Mrs. Annis and her children!"

NOT LIKE THAW TRIAL.

District Attorney Darrin of Queens county, who has charge of the prosecution of the Hains brothers, announced today that Queens county could not tolerate a great expenditure of money in trying the case and that there was no necessity for a long drawn out trial. Darrin continued:

"The trial of the Hains brothers will not be a repetition of the Harry Thaw case. I expect to be ready to try the case at the earliest date that can be fixed for the trial, which may be some time in October."

Watkin G. Percy, the first lawyer called in to defend Captain Hains and his brother, refused to comment on the various statements. In respect to the much-exploited incident of the automobile ride in which Captain Hains took Annis after his return from the Philippines, Percy threw a new light.

HAD ANNIS TO DINNER.

"The captain," said Percy, "returned with the conviction that all the gossip connecting Annis and his wife was absurdly without foundation. He studied upon it to allow the documents of the woman he loved and decided that the best way would be to openly invite Annis to dinner at the fort. He did this, trusting the word of his wife. That night Annis came to the fort with his wife and after dinner the four—Mrs. Hains, the captain and Mr. and Mrs. Annis—went out together on an automobile ride. He inquired to that the captain discovered the truth."

Mrs. Annis had told Harvey Rockwell, a friend of her husband, that Captain Hains wrote three letters to Annis within the last six weeks. The first one accused Annis of having broken up his home and warned him that he would shoot him on sight. About two weeks later another letter was sent. Annis wrote himself about ten days ago. Another received another letter asking that he call at the home of Thornton Hains in Bay Ridge. Annis went to the appointed place, but found neither Captain Hains nor his brother there. He did not arm himself at any time, and did not believe Captain Hains had any intention of killing him.

Those who attended yesterday and today will therefore do well to come back again tomorrow because they'll find lots of things they didn't see at their previous visit.

STORE OPEN TOMORROW EVENING.

Those who are unable to call during the day had better try and get around tomorrow evening. We will be open until 10 or later.

All scratches can easily be taken out while nothing is seen.

Tonight We Will Put Some More of the St. Regis Furniture on the Floor

All goods marked "Sold" will be taken from the floor tonight and their places filled by un-sold pieces. Those who came yesterday and today haven't seen half the furniture of this apartment house. There are scores of pieces that we haven't had room to show. Among the new pieces to be brought forward tonight and sold tomorrow are the following:

GENERAL HAINS SAYS SON'S WIFE CONFESSED HER SHAME

Father of Prisoner Asserts Woman Told of Her Misconduct

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—J. E. McLean, attorney of counsel for Captain Peter C. Hains, who killed Willa E. Annis, yesterday told for the first time of the events leading up to the tragedy, as follows:

"Having been summoned from the Philippines by Thornton Hains, Peter questioned his wife and refused to believe Thornton's stories and quarreled with him. General Mrs. Hains took her to tell him where she had been during a period of a certain week or ten days, when she was absent from her home and children. Mrs. Hains told the general that she had spent the time with a woman friend. The general demanded the name of this friend and investigation showed that Mrs. Hains had not been near the person.

"With the proof of this lie, the general went to the captain and the two confronted Mrs. Hains. At first she said there must be some mistake. Finally she admitted that she had not told the truth as to her whereabouts during her absence from home.

"She finally admitted that Annis had wounded her after Captain Hains had gone to the Philippines.

MET IN APARTMENT.

"Annis, Mrs. Hains said, took her from her home to the apartment of a well known man in this city more than once. These clandestine meetings led to Mrs. Hains becoming evidence.

"Annis took Mrs. Hains to a physician, who performed an operation, whose name Mrs. Hains gave."

Mrs. Hains, when interviewed in Boston, declared that she had been terribly mistreated and misrepresented by her husband and his brother, and did not ask for money to get rid of him. "My husband and his brother are very evil, she said. "I hope they will both be hanged. Those scoundrels are capable of anything. In my husband's absence Thornton Hains, the villain, tried to make love to me, and I hated him. I was beaten savagely and crazed until I signed some papers (her alleged confession). They may have been a blank for all I can recall."

FEARED FOR LIFE.

"Peter Hains is a brute, but I would have borne with him for my children's sake. My husband beat me many times. He would have shot me, too. I had thought he would seek me out and kill me. The reasons, I hope they will both be hanged. My poor babies! What will become of them?"

TOMORROW WE SELL THE SECOND SECTION OF THE FURNITURE OF THE ST. REGIS APARTMENTS

Friday Evening, August 21st, 1908.

LATEST NEWS

Tonight, after the store closes, we will clear out everything marked "Sold" and make room for a part of the balance of the St. Regis furniture.

REGARDING DELIVERIES

We are making deliveries as fast as we can and you must be patient. If you can't wait you'll have to get your own team. Every delivery has to come in its turn.

Furthermore, a great majority of the pieces have to be repolished and fixed up which takes time and also causes delay.

As pieces were sold we tagged them and tonight, after we close, we will clear the floor of everything sold and put in their places other pieces from the St. Regis.

So be patient regarding your deliveries.

REGARDING DAMAGED GOODS.

Although everything in the sale has been used don't think that everything is damaged. It quite frequently happens that pieces of furniture remain in a store 3 or 4 years and are sold for new, while this St. Regis furniture is only a few months old and given no harder usage than is often given the stock in some stores.

So far the dressers have sold faster than anything else, but that is probably because the curtains have not been shown (which really are the greatest values in the sale).

The curtains came in late this afternoon, however, and
